Contemporary American Fiction in the European Classroom Laurence W. Mazzeno, Sue Norton, 2022-04-06 This book offers insight into the ways students enrolled in European classrooms in higher education come to understand American experience through its literary fiction which for decades has been a key component of English department offerings and American Studies curricula across the continent and in Great Britain and Ireland The essays provide an understanding of how post World War II American writers some already elevated to canonical status and some not are represented in European university classrooms and why they have been chosen for inclusion in coursework The book will be of interest to scholars and teachers of American literature and American studies and to students in American literature and American studies courses collection of movie locations this book delivers a rare glimpse into the history of film production practices in Hong Kong The locations described here are often not the most iconic rather they are the anonymous streets and back alleys used by local film studios in the 1960s and 70s They are the garden cafes with outdoor seating near the Chinese University of Hong Kong where moments of conflict in romantic comedies erupt and dissipate They are the old Kai Tak Airport which channels rage and desire and the tenement housing which splits citizens into greedy landlords and the diligent working class and embodies old day communal values Modern Hong Kong horror films draw their power from the material character of home grown convenient stores shopping arcades and lost mansions found under modern high rises As in the films of Wong Kar wai and Johnnie To readers will drift and dash through the streets of Central to the district s periphery almost recklessly automatically or for the sheer pleasure of roaming The first of its kind in English this book is more than a city guide to Hong Kong through the medium of film it is a unique exploration of relationship between location and place and genre innovations in Hong Kong cinema Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1955 The Slings & Arrows Comic Guide Frank Plowright,2003 Reviews and analyses of over 5000 titles from the 1930s to date Every comic of note from the past fifty years is included in this comprehensive guide to American comics From the underground to children s comics autobiography to fantasy Aliens in Popular Culture Michael M.
