Offill, 2020-02-11 INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES BEST SELLER From the beloved author of the nationwide best seller Dept of Speculation one of the New York Times Book Review's Ten Best Books of the Year a darkly funny and urgent NPR tour de force about a family and a nation in crisis Lizzie Benson slid into her job as a librarian without a traditional degree But this gives her a vantage point from which to practice her other calling she is a fake shrink For years she has tended to her God

haunted mother and her recovering addict brother They have both stabilized for the moment but Lizzie has little chance to spend her new free time with husband and son before her old mentor Sylvia Liller makes a proposal Sylvia has become famous for her prescient podcast Hell and High Water and wants to hire Lizzie to answer the mail she receives from left wingers worried about climate change and right wingers worried about the decline of western civilization As Lizzie dives into this polarized world she begins to wonder what it means to keep tending your own garden once you've seen the flames beyond its walls When her brother becomes a father and Sylvia a recluse Lizzie is forced to address the limits of her own experience but still she tries to save everyone using everything she's learned about empathy and despair conscience and collusion from her years of wandering the library stacks And all the while the voices of the city keep floating in funny disturbing and increasingly mad Offill's fragmentary structure evokes an unbearable emotional intensity something at the core of the story that cannot be narrated directly by straight chronology because to do so would be like looking at the sun
