Web at www.wiley.com/practiceplanners What is This Thing Called Love? Sarah Fels Usher, 2014-02-25 What is This Thing Called Love provides a clear how to guide for carrying out psychotherapy with couples from a psychoanalytic perspective. The book draws on both early and contemporary psychoanalytic knowledge explaining how each theory described is useful in formulating couple dynamics and in working with them. The result is an extremely practical approach with detailed step by step instructions on technique illuminated throughout by vivid case studies. The book focuses on several key areas including: An initial discussion about theories of love; Progression of therapy from beginning to termination; Transference and countertransference and their unique manifestations in couples therapy; Comparisons between couples therapy and individual therapy; Step by step instruction on technique. What is This Thing Called Love is enlivened with humour and humanness. It is crucial reading for psychoanalytic therapists, psychologists, psychiatrists, couples therapists and students who want to learn about or augment their skills in this challenging modality. Pre-Marital Counseling Angela Skurtu, 2016-03-02 A guide for therapists and counselors. Pre Marital Counseling addresses the common problems couples face when starting or considering marriage. This step by step guide teaches specific intervention strategies for common pre-marital problems such as financial stress, blending families and mental health issues. It also teaches readers helpful skills such as developing empathy, learning to compromise and communicating successfully all within a potentially diverse client population. Skurtu further helps clinicians personalize their assessment and treatment plans for each couple so that they have realistic expectations. Written by a certified sex therapist there is also a unique chapter on helpful sex education tips for maintaining desire in long term relationships. The Starter Marriage and the Future of Matrimony Pamela Paul, 2003-01-14 A pioneering look at first marriages lasting five years or less and ending without children. Paul's book will be a lesson to those contemplating marriage and a comfort to those who falter. The Economist What is it about marriage that makes today's twenty and thirtysomethings want it so badly? And why do so many of their marriages despite high hopes and desires end in divorce? Nobody goes into a starter marriage expecting to divorce and trade up to something better but like a starter home a starter marriage can teach you a lot about what to look for and what to avoid the next time around. Drawing on extensive research and interviews with starter marriage vets Pamela Paul explores why young people are jumping in and out of marriage and what lessons can be drawn from their failures. She shows how starter marriages can be avoided and why lifelong marriage is still a desirable achievable option for the next marrying generation. The New Handbook of Psychotherapy and Counseling with Men, 2001 Filipiniana Reference Sources, 2003 Contemporary Issues in Counseling Pamela K. S. Patrick, 2007 This compelling book stimulates readers to explore and critically analyze contemporary issues faced by helping professionals practicing in a dynamic and changing environment. Issues reflect current trends as well as emerging practice topics not addressed in other books such as coaching, disaster counseling and the bio-psycho-social model. The book focuses its attention on key issues that all counselors can identify with within three major sections the first sets the stage that is the environment of contemporary counseling practice section II focuses on issues that directly apply to counseling practice and that appear in the headlines in the lives of counselors and Section III addresses the emerging topics that will become topics of research in the years ahead Features of the book include the use of current research theory and applications to provide a contemporary review of key issues counselors face in every day practice may encounter while in training or that are emerging as innovations within the counseling and human services fields of practice Case vignettes are used throughout all chapters to bring the content alive to the reader and present examples of how the issues described are in evidence in the real world of the counseling practitioner Issues of culture ethnicity and diversity are highlighted throughout the text Discussion questions topics at end of each chapter highlight key concepts by applying the chapter content to the topics questions Topics additionally are linked to in text content sections of each chapter to reinforce application of theory and research to practice    Journal of Integrative and Eclectic Psychotherapy ,1990    The California Psychologist ,2001    Becoming a Family Counselor Thomas W. Blume,2006-04-07 Suitable for readers experiencing their first foray into family counseling as well as for seasoned practitioners confused by the competing array of theoretical orientations and technical approaches Becoming a Family Counselor first orients the reader to the field of family therapy and then presents five themes inherent in successful family intervention The book concludes with practical chapters on conducting family therapy in an individually oriented reimbursement environment developing change oriented interactional styles and engaging in ethically sound practice    Theories and Strategies of Family Therapy Jon Carlson,Diane Kjos,2002 Theories and Strategies of Family Therapy complements and expands upon the Family Therapy with the Experts video series produced by the same authors Twelve major theories of family therapy are presented Most are written by the experts who appear in Allyn Bacon s Family Therapy with the Experts video series Each chapter begins with a brief description of the theory and what makes it significant The authors then delineate the clinical perspective and the way in which their approach deals with today s diverse family forms The authors show how their theory is practiced by presenting ideas and then referencing sections in the corresponding video    Journal of Marital and Family Therapy ,2010
