Identify when you feel most comfortable in your role as a leader. Indicate how easily you feel most comfortable in this situation. Then identify situations when you feel least comfortable in your role as a leader. Indicate how easily you feel least comfortable in this situation. In both situations, consider what makes you feel most comfortable and what makes you feel least comfortable. Consider the following questions when identifying the situations. Finally, when identifying the situations, focus on the consequences that result when others are not "comfortable" in their roles.
