Crafting Phenomenological Research Mark D. Vagle, 2024-10-09 Crafting Phenomenological Research Third Edition continues to demonstrate its award winning quality clearly establishing itself as the leading international resource for those interested in a concise introduction to phenomenological research in education and social sciences. As a leading contemporary practitioner of phenomenology Vagle walks the reader through multiple approaches to designing and implementing phenomenological research including his post intentional phenomenology which incorporates elements of poststructural thinking into longstanding phenomenological methods. Vagle provides readers with methodological tools to build their own phenomenological study addressing such issues as research design, data gathering and analysis, and writing. Replete with exercises for students, resources for further research, and examples of completed phenomenological studies, this book affords the instructor an easy entrance into introducing phenomenology into courses on qualitative research, social theory, or educational research. New to this edition: A new final chapter that introduces his latest developments in post intentional phenomenology. PIP Updated snapshots and resource digs that provide brief commentary and/or examples to illustrate concepts and ideas many of which draw on Vagle's latest contemplative research study. Updated discussions of important methodological concepts such as researcher reflexivity. Crafting Phenomenological Research Mark Dennis Vagle, 2014. This is an accessible, concise introduction to phenomenological research that outlines the key principles for conducting this research from leading contemporary practitioners and his own strand which incorporates elements of post structural thinking into traditional methods. Handbook of Empirical Literary Studies Donald Kuiken, Arthur M. Jacobs, 2021-09-20 This handbook reviews efforts to increase the use of empirical methods in studies of the aesthetic and social effects of literary reading. The reviewed research is expansive, including extension of familiar theoretical models to novel domains e.g. educational settings, enlarging empirical efforts within under-represented research areas e.g. child development, and broadening the range of applicable quantitative and qualitative methods e.g. computational stylistics, phenomenological methods. Especially challenging is articulation of the subtle aesthetic and social effects of literary artefacts.

e g poetry film Increasingly the complexity of these effects is addressed in multi variate studies including confirmatory factor analysis and structural equation modeling While each chapter touches upon the historical background of a specific research topic two chapters address the area s historical background and guiding philosophical assumptions Taken together the material in this volume provides a systematic introduction to the area for early career professionals while challenging active researchers to develop theoretical frameworks and empirical procedures that match the complexity of their research objectives
