They want to deeply understand their destination before they go, feel a meaningful connection to the place while there and return home feeling enriched and ready to share their experiences with others. With these trends in mind and the results of extensive proprietary market research, National Geographic Traveler has been enhanced with engaging new features and a contemporary redesign. Each guide begins with an introduction that enables the traveler to sample a bit of the culture, history and attractions before they go and plan the trip based on their own interests and length of stay. Travelers can immerse themselves in active in-country experiences and 'Off the Beaten Path' excursions they won't find anywhere else, like visiting a family in a South African township or learning to cook Maori cuisine with a renowned New Zealand chef. Other new features such as Insider Tips from National Geographic photographers, writers and experts, as well as Not To Be Missed lists, ensure that each person's visit will be one of a kind and memorable. To make the most of these and all the other great new features, the guides' design has been simplified, opened up and enhanced with easy-to-read, tinted sections. Gorgeous color photographs, high-quality maps and the popular walking and driving tours are still highlights of our crisp new look.
