McNamara, Ken Davis, 2005-05 This book is a practical step by step guide for church planters and their coaches It covers everything they need to know to start healthy growing churches that are biblically faithful and yet culturally relevant While addressing the who why and where of planting new congregations this comprehensive manual focuses primarily on the how tos The authors use a five stage life cycle conception pre natal development birth infancy adolescent growth and adult reproduction to flesh out the entire process of starting and growing a new church Under each of these stages a host of essential ministry and planning tasks is addressed so the planter can keep his baby church on course and can have the joy of watching the new church grow to maturity and eventually reproduce itself Transforming the Lutheran Church in Liberia Dr. Alexander Yarmie Sumo, 2022-04-06

Transforming the Lutheran Church in Liberia By Dr Alexander Yarmie Sumo Drawing upon insights from past and present Liberian leaders Transforming The Lutheran Church in Liberia offers bold proposals for reconceptualizing sustaining and expanding the mission and ministry of the Lutheran Church in Liberia LCL while offering an incisive challenge to Western Lutheran churches wishing to accompany the LCL in its mission Providing the most comprehensive history of the LCL currently available this volume is a valuable resource for scholars as well as for LCL members who wish to understand their own history Joy A Schroeder PhD Professor of Church History Trinity Lutheran Seminary at Capital University Columbus Ohio Freedom of Religion at Stake Dion A. Forster, Elisabeth Gerle, Göran Gunner, 2019-11-01 How can freedom of religion protect the dignity of every human being and safeguard the well being of creation This question arises when considering the competing claims among faith traditions states and persons Freedom of religion or belief is a basic human right and yet it is sometimes used to undermine other human rights This volume seeks to unpack and wrestle with some of these challenges In order to do so scholars were invited from different contexts in Africa and Europe to write about freedom of religion from various angles How should faith traditions in a minority position be protected against majority claims and what is the responsibility of the religious communities in this task When does the state risk overstepping its boundaries in the delicate balance between freedom of religion and other human rights How can new voices who claim their human rights in relation to gender roles reproductive rights and as sexual minorities be heard within their faith traditions These are some of the questions that are raised by the authors This is a book for all who are engaged in faith communities leaders as well as people trying to be recognized It is also important reading for all interested in international legal frameworks for freedom of religion state advisers and human right defenders *The Acts and Proceedings of the ... Brent Walker, 2008 This collection of essays speeches sermons and congressional testimony provides a living history of the modern era the life of the Baptist Joint Committee now in its eighth decade It includes historical essays dealing with the role of the pulpit in the fight for American independence the involvement of James Madison and Thomas Jefferson in fashioning the First Amendment and the contribution of numerous Baptists like Roger Williams and John Clarke to our understanding of the proper relationship between church and state It also addresses specific religious liberty issues such as school vouchers charitable choice the Ten Commandments religion in the public schools attempts to amend the Constitution including testimony he has given before House and Senate committees on these and other issues Both a lawyer and an ordained minister Walker writes on church state cases decided by the Supreme Court and about the justices themselves as well the theological underpinning of his passion for religious liberty Sermons he has preached in Baptist pulpits across the land are also included Publisher

Homophobia in the Black Church Anthony Stanford,2013-03-14 This book explains how faith politics and fear contribute to the homophobic mindset within the Black Church and the African American community Homophobia in the Black Church How Faith Politics and Fear Divide the Black Community explores the various reasons for the Black Church s aversion and the general black cultural inflexibility toward homosexuality same sex marriage and acceptance of the LGBT community It connects black cultural resistance toward homosexuality to politics faith and fear follows the trail of faith based funding to the pulpit of black mega churches and spotlights how members of the black clergy have sacrificed black LGBTQ Christians for personal and political advancement The author systematically builds his case linking the reasons blacks are intolerant of deviation from acceptable sexual behavior to the 1960s struggle for racial equality and tying longstanding black sexual mores to present day politics social conservatism and the lure of federal funding to black churches and religious and social organizations He also spotlights specific homophobic black ministers and draws back the curtain on their alliance with White social conservatives and religious and political extremists to reveal an improbable but powerful union
