C.S. Lewis—On the Christ of a Religious Economy, 3.2 P. H. Brazier, 2014-01-16 C S Lewis On the Christ of a Religious Economy II Knowing Salvation opens with a discussion of the Anscombe Lewis debate the theological issues relating to revelation and reason Christ the Logos This leads into Lewis on the Church the body of Christ and his understanding of religion how is salvation enacted through the churches how do we know we are saved This concludes with for Lewis the question of sufferance and atonement substitution and election deliverance and redemption heaven hell resurrection and eternity Christ s work of salvation on the cross What did Lewis say of humanity in relation to God now Immanuel God with us incarnate crucified resurrected and ascended for humanity What of Lewis s own death and that of his wife What does this tell us about the triune God of Love who is Love This volume forms the second part of the third book in a series of studies on the theology of C S Lewis titled C S Lewis Revelation and the Christ The books are written for academics and students but also crucially for those people ordinary Christians without a theology degree who enjoy and gain sustenance from reading Lewis s work www.cslewisandthechrist.net "The Body is for the Lord" Jean Rossner, Graduate Theological Union, 1990

Membership List American Society for Testing and Materials, 1913 Yearbook [membership] American Society for Testing Materials, 1918 List of publications in each volume National Vocational Organizations, 1987 Natural Law and Evangelical Political Thought Jesse Covington, Bryan T. McGraw, Micah Watson, 2012-11-16 Natural law has long been a cornerstone of Christian political thought providing moral norms that ground law in a shareable account of human goods and obligations Despite this history twentieth and twenty first century evangelicals have proved quite reticent to embrace natural law casting it as a relic of scholastic Roman Catholicism that underestimates the import of scripture and the division between Christians and non Christians As recent critics have noted this reluctance has posed significant problems for the coherence and completeness of evangelical political reflections Responding to evangelically minded thinkers increasing calls for a re engagement with natural law this volume explores the problems and prospects attending evangelical rapprochement with natural law Many of the chapters are optimistic about an evangelical re appropriation of natural law but note ways in which evangelical commitments might lend distinctive shape to this engagement Heresy in the Heartland Mary Jude Brown, 2022-03-05 Heresy in the Heartland is a narrative case study of the Heresy Affair at the University of Dayton a series of events predominantly in the philosophy department that occurred when tensions between the Thomists and proponents of new philosophies reached crisis stage in fall 1966 The controversy culminated in a letter written by a lay assistant professor to the Cincinnati archbishop Karl J Alter In the letter the professor cited a number of instances where erroneous teachings were endorsed or openly advocated by four lay faculty members Concerned about the pastoral impact on the University of Dayton community the professor asked the archbishop to conduct an investigation How the University weathered this controversy the second of three major controversies to hit Catholic higher education within three years St John s University

University of Dayton and the Curran affair at Catholic University of America is of interest to faculty and administrators in Catholic higher education who continue to struggle with defining what it means to be a Catholic university with the relationship of Catholic universities to the Church at large and the hierarchy in particular and with Church teachings that conflict with the culture we live in such as immigration the environment and sexual ethics The story is told in chronological order by the participants in the controversy faculty administrators students and clergy using the words of those involved Heresy in the Heartland concludes with a synopsis of what happened at the University of Dayton and draws some lessons for the future of Catholic higher education

Making the Best of It John G. Stackhouse, 2011-10 What should be the Christian's attitude toward society When so much of our contemporary culture is at odds with Christian beliefs and mores it may seem that serious Christians now have only two choices transform society completely according to Christian values or retreat into the cloister of sectarian fellowship In Making the Best of It John Stackhouse offers a more balanced and fruitful alternative to these extremes He argues that rather than trying to root up the weeds in the cultural field or trying to shun them Christians should practice persistence in gardening God's world and building toward the New Jerusalem

Virtues of Renewal Jeffrey Bilbro, 2018-12-14 For over fifty years Wendell Berry has argued that our most pressing ecological and cultural need is a renewed formal intelligence a mode of thinking and acting that fosters the health of the earth and its beings Yet the present industrial economy prioritizes a technical self-centered way of relating to the world that often demands and rewards busyness over thoughtful observation independence over relationships and replacing over repairing Such a system is both unsustainable and results in destructive far-reaching consequences for our society and land In Virtues of Renewal Wendell Berry's Sustainable Forms Jeffrey Bilbro combines textual analysis and cultural criticism to explain how Berry's literary forms encourage readers to practice virtues of renewal While the written word alone cannot enact change Bilbro asserts that Berry's poetry essays and fiction can inspire people to as Berry writes practice resurrection Bilbro examines the distinct yet symbiotic features of these three genres demonstrating the importance of the humanities in supporting tenable economies He uses Berry's pieces to suggest the need for more robust language for discussing conservation ecology and the natural and regenerative process of death Bilbro additionally translates Berry's literature to a wider audience putting him in conversation with philosophers and theologians such as Ivan Illich Willie Jennings Charles Taylor and Augustine The lessons that Berry and his work have to offer are not only for those interested in cultivating the land but also for those who cultivate their communities and live mindfully In short these lessons are pertinent to all who are willing to make an effort to live the examined life Such formative work is not dramatic or quick but it can foster the deep and lasting transformation necessary to develop a more sustainable culture and economy
