Liesbeth Groot Nibbelink, 2019-04-18 Fluid stages morphing theatre spaces ambulant spectators and occasionally disappearing performers these are some of the key ingredients of nomadic theatre They are also theatre s response to life in the 21st century which is increasingly marked by the mobility of people information technologies and services While examining how contemporary theatre exposes and queries this mobile turn in society Liesbeth Groot Nibbelink introduces the concept of nomadic theatre as a vital tool for analyzing how movement and mobility affect and implicate the theatre how this makes way for local operations and lived spaces and how physical movements are stepping stones for theorizing mobility at large This book focuses on ambulatory performances and performative installations asking how they stage movement and in turn mobilize the stage By analyzing the work of leading European artists such as Rimini Protokoll Dries Verhoeven Ontroerend Goed and Signa Nomadic Theatre demonstrates that mobile performances radically rethink the conditions of the stage and alter our understanding of spectatorship Nomadic Theatre instigates connections across disciplinary fields and feeds dramaturgical analysis with insights derived from media theory urban philosophy cartography architecture and game studies It illustrates how theatre as a material form of thought creatively and critically engages with mobile existence both on the stage and in society      Maps James R. Akerman, Robert W. Karrow (J.), 2007 Introducing readers to a wide range of maps from different time periods and a variety of cultures this book confirms the vital roles of maps throughout history in

City of Screens Jasmine Nadua Trice, 2021-02-08 In City of Screens Jasmine Nadua Trice examines the politics of cinema circulation in early 2000s Manila She traces Manila s cinema landscape by focusing on the primary locations of film exhibition and distribution the pirated DVD district mall multiplexes art house cinemas the university film institute and state sponsored cinematheques In the wake of digital media piracy and the decline of the local commercial film industry the rising independent cinema movement has been a site of contestation between filmmakers and the state each constructing different notions of a prospective national public film audience Discourses around audiences become more salient given that films by independent Philippine filmmakers are seldom screened to domestic audiences despite their international success City of Screens provides a deeper understanding of the debates about the competing roles of the film industry the public and the state in national culture in the Philippines and beyond      American Indian Culture and Research Journal , 2008      Scarred

Landscapes Stephanie Lewthwaite, 2025-09-30 Scarred Landscapes is a groundbreaking exploration of the rich and complex works of Caribbean Latinx artists. Scholar Stephanie Lewthwaite documents the work of ten influential artists of Cuban, Dominican, and Puerto Rican descent based in New York City from the 1970s to the present. Through their diverse practices, including painting, printmaking, photography, sculpture, installation, video, and performance art, these artists confront the legacies of colonial trauma and their own experiences of diasporic unbelonging and artworld marginality. The book combines formal analysis with artist testimony, exhibition histories, and theoretical frameworks from trauma, memory, and archipelagic studies to offer a multifaceted examination of Caribbean Latinx art. Lewthwaite explores how these artists practice archipelagic memory, a generative decolonial and coalitional form of memory work that envisions alternative modes of belonging in difference and solidarity with others. By connecting different people, pasts, and places, Caribbean Latinx artists expose the reverberations of trauma while imagining other worlds beyond it. This work puts Caribbean Latinx artists at the center of debates about the exclusions of dominant memory narratives and contemporary art worlds, highlighting their contributions to a wider decolonial project of remembrance. By revealing the interconnectedness of traumatic histories and the potential for art to foster empathy and justice, Lewthwaite's work underscores the importance of relational and decolonial thought for imagining a better society.

Progressive Women, Traditional Men Ingrid Ulrika Dahl, 2004 Radical Cartographies Bjørn Sletto, Joe Bryan, Alfredo Wagner, Charles Hale, 2020-09-15 Cartography has a troubled history as a technology of power. The production and distribution of maps often understood to be ideological representations that support the interests of their developers, have served as tools of colonization, imperialism, and global development, advancing Western notions of space and place at the expense of Indigenous peoples and other marginalized communities. But over the past two decades, these marginalized populations have increasingly turned to participatory mapping practices to develop new, innovative maps that reassert local concepts of place and space, thus harnessing the power of cartography in their struggles for justice. In twelve essays written by community leaders, activists, and scholars, Radical Cartographies critically explores the ways in which participatory mapping is being used by Indigenous, Afro-descendant, and other traditional groups in Latin America to preserve their territories and cultural identities. Through this pioneering volume, the authors fundamentally rethink the role of maps, with significant lessons for marginalized communities across the globe, and launch a unique dialogue about the radical edge of a new social cartography.

Cartography and Geographic Information Science, 2008 Making Sense of Place Frank Vanclay, Matthew Higgins, Adam Blackshaw, 2008 Making Sense of Place is a book of selected proceedings from the Senses of Place conference held in Hobart in April 2006. It explores place from myriad perspectives and through evocative encounters. The Barrier Reef is experienced through the sense of touch; Lake Mungo is encountered through sound and listening; and light is shed on the meaning of place for deaf people. Case studies include the Maze prison, Inuit hunting grounds, and the songlines of the Anangu people. Iconic landscapes, lookouts, gardens, grieving
