fills the last big gap in Civil War biography It is extraordinary that no previous life of General Joshua Lawrence Chamberlain the hero of Little Round Top at Gettysburg has previously appeared for Chamberlain was a truly great fighting general There are many who hold that Chamberlain's defense of Little Round Top turned the tide at Gettysburg and thus saved the Union Chamberlain was born a soldier but he planned originally to be a missionary A graduate of Bangor Theological Seminary he was an instructor in religion at Bowdoin College when the Civil War broke out and he discovered his true vocation His career was one of exceptional gallantry He was an officer always in the thick of battle Fourteen horses were shot under him and finally he was terribly wounded yet recovered to fight in the closing campaigns of the War He was designated to receive the surrender of the Confederate infantry after the Appomattox meeting of Grant and Lee and he played the role with magnanimity Chamberlain's peacetime career was no less notable Four times he was elected Governor of the State of Maine and has made a good governor Then he became president of Bowdoin College and instituted there a progressive educational policy declaring that we must also take hold of which we call science and which makes knowledge power In 1880 Chamberlain unarmed and alone faced down at Augusta the capital of Maine a mob that threatened to kill him With magnificent courage he said I am here to see that the laws of this state are put into effect I am here for that and I shall do it If anybody wants to kill me for it here I am Chamberlain was a State of Maine man to the marrow of his bones He was born on a farm at Brewer Maine where today a big bridge is named after him he was Maine educated he served with Maine regiments he was active in Maine politics and president of Bowdoin Maine's great college he closed his life of service by acting as Port Surveyor at Portland Book jacket The Right Honourable Joseph Chamberlain N.
