Supporting Reading in Grades 6–12 Sybil M. Farwell, Nancy L. Teger, 2012-06-11 This book presents a curricular framework for students grades 6 12 that school librarians and teachers can use collaboratively to enhance reading skill development promote literature appreciation and motivate young people to incorporate reading into their lives beyond the required schoolwork Supporting Reading Grades 6 12 A Guide addresses head on the disturbing trend of declining leisure reading among students and demonstrates how school librarians can contribute to the development of lifelong reading habits as well as improve students motivation and test scores The book provides a comprehensive framework for achieving this the READS curriculum which stands for Read as a personal activity Explore characteristics history and awards of creative works Analyze structure and aesthetic features of creative works Develop a literary based product and Score reading progress Each of these five components is explained thoroughly describing how school librarians can encourage students to read as individuals in groups and as school communities support classroom teachers instruction and connect students to today s constantly evolving technologies Used in combination with an inquiry information skills model the READS curriculum enables school librarians to deliver a dynamic balanced library program that addresses AASL s Standards for the 21st Century Learner

Insights Into Non-native Vocabulary Teaching and Learning Rubén Chacón Beltrán, Rubén Chacón-Beltrán, Christián Abello-Contesse, María del Mar Torreblanca-López, 2010 The book is divided into three parts Part one provides the overview and deals with the development of a model for vocabulary teaching and learning Part two focuses on empirical studies on lexical processing in English and Spanish Part three centers on materials design for vocabulary teaching and learning The advances made in this book will certainly be of interest to researchers teachers and graduate students working on this very active field of inquiry

The State of Stylistics, 2008-01-01 The State of Stylistics contains a broad collection of papers that investigate how stylistics has evolved throughout the late 20th and early 21st centuries In so doing it considers how stylisticians currently perceive their own respective fields of enquiry It also defines what stylistics is and how we might use it in research and teaching

Miracles and Machines Elizabeth King, W. David Todd , 2023-08-22 An abundantly illustrated narrative that draws from the history of art science technology artificial intelligence psychology religion and conservation in telling the extraordinary story of a Renaissance robot that prays This volume tells the singular story of an uncanny rare object at the cusp of art and science a 450 year old automaton known as the monk The walking gesticulating figure of a friar in the collection of the Smithsonian Institution s National Museum of American History is among the earliest extant ancestors of the self propelled robot According to legend connected to the court of Philip II of Spain the monk represents a portrait of Diego de Alcalá a humble Franciscan lay brother whose holy corpse was said to be agent to the miraculous cure of Spain s crown prince as he lay dying in 1562 In tracking the origins of the monk and its legend the authors visited archives libraries and museums across the United States and Europe probing the paradox of a mechanical object performing an apparently spiritual act They identified seven kindred automata from the same period which they argue form a paradigmatic class of walking prime movers unprecedented in their combination of visual and functional realism While most of the literature on automata focuses on the Enlightenment this enthralling narrative journeys back to the late Renaissance when clockwork machinery was entirely new foretelling the evolution of artificial life to come Los
