Freedom was an issue in the time of Luther. Freedom is still an issue. Is freedom unlimited or are there limits? People and nations today wrestle with this issue. Consider these ideas as you address this issue in your life and world. A Christian man is the most free lord of all and subject to none; a Christian man is the most dutiful servant of all and subject to every one.      A Treatise on Christian Liberty Martin Luther, 2018-04-02

A Treatise on Christian Liberty is one of Martin Luther's major reforming treatises of 1520. It developed the concept that as fully forgiven children of God, Christians are no longer compelled to keep God's law; however, they freely and willingly serve God and their neighbors. Luther also further develops the concept of justification by faith. In the treatise, Luther stated: "A Christian is a perfectly free lord of all, subject to none. A Christian is a perfectly dutiful servant of all, subject to all."      On Christian Liberty Martin Luther, 2003

Communicates essential teachings of Martin Luther, conveying significant spiritual insight into the grace of God and liberating faith in Christ Jesus in a counter-cultural and down-to-earth guide that is accessible to young adult readers in an inexpensive pocket-sized format. Original.      Concerning Christian Liberty Martin Luther, 2015-10-16

The third of Martin Luther's major reforming treatises of 1520. Early in the course of the Reformation, 1520, Martin Luther penned a trilogy of foundational documents addressing the Church, the Nobility, and the Christian life. This document concerning the Christian life expounds the famous paradox: "A Christian man is the most free lord of all and subject to none; a Christian man is the most dutiful servant of all and subject to every one." Martin Luther's treatise Concerning Christian Liberty is one of the most powerful and concise presentations of the Christian life ever written, a true gem among Reformation writings. Here you will find the essence of Reformation spirituality distilled into a guide for practical biblical living. With the bold authority of a true prophet, Luther directs his message to the average Christian in clear, simple language. The doctrine of justification by grace through faith in Christ is the heart and soul of Luther's message, founded upon a firm conviction in the authority of Scripture. Included is Luther's direct letter and treatise to Pope Leo X on his religious beliefs and a bruising analysis of the Catholic Church. Luther strongly objected to making a new law of the forms and urged the retention of other good liturgies. While advocating Christian liberty in liturgical matters, he also spoke out in favor of maintaining and establishing liturgical uniformity among those sharing the same faith in a given area. Concerning Christian Liberty is a wonderful piece on Luther's balance between the Catholic Church and his teachings on liberty. Our Lord has written the promise of resurrection not in books alone but in every leaf in springtime. Martin Luther.      Concerning Christian Liberty Martin Luther, 2020-05-15

This annotated edition of Concerning Christian Liberty includes an extra appendix which provides an interesting overview of Martin Luther's peasant roots, his education in pre-law, and how he was diverted from a law career to that of a monk turned professor and eventually Protestant reformer The role of the printing press in spreading the 95 Theses quickly over Europe catapulting Martin Luther to near instant prominence in the religious dialogue of his day The story of how Martin Luther colluded with a fishmonger to smuggle his future wife and her friends away from a convent and Martin Luther's impact on the Protestant Reformation as well as modern religious thought Martin Luther's treatise Concerning Christian Liberty is one of the most powerful and concise presentations of the Christian life ever written The power, discernment, brevity and readability of this work make a true gem among Reformation writings and Christian writings in general Here you will find the essence of the spirit of the Reformation distilled into a guide for practical biblical living With the clarity and bold authority of a prophet Luther sets forth the whole of the Christian life in two theses A Christian is a perfectly free lord of all subject to none A Christian is a perfectly dutiful servant of all subject to all We are free from sin and the law subject to none but slaves to Christ in love subject to all As Paul writes in Romans 6:22 But now you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God Luther writes as a shepherd of the common people and the tone and content differ greatly from his better known debate oriented works such as The Bondage of the Will The doctrine of justification by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone is the heart and soul of Luther's message founded upon a firm conviction in the authority of Scripture alone

cannot sin die or be condemned and since His righteousness life and salvation are invincible eternal and almighty when I say such a Person by the wedding ring of faith takes a share in the sins death and hell of His wife nay makes them His own and deals with them no otherwise than as if they were His and as if He Himself had sinned and when He suffers dies and descends to hell that He may overcome all things and since sin death and hell cannot swallow Him up they must needs be swallowed up by Him in stupendous conflict This the spirit of faith cannot and will not bear but applies itself with cheerfulness and zeal to keep it down and restrain it as Paul says I delight in the law of God after the inward man but I see another law in my members warring against the law of my mind and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin Rom vii 22 23 and again I keep under my body and bring it unto subjection lest that by any means when I have preached to others I myself should be a castaway 1 Cor ix 27 and They that are Christs have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts Gal v Since then works justify no man but a man must be justified before he can do any good work it is most evident that it is faith alone which by the mere mercy of God through Christ and by means of His word can worthily and sufficiently justify and save the person and that a Christian man needs no work no law for his salvation for by faith he is free from all law and in perfect freedom does gratuitously all that he does seeking nothing either of profit or of salvation since by the grace of God he is already saved and rich in all things through his faith but solely that which is well pleasing to God Pauls meaning is this Christ when He was full of the form of God and abounded in all good things so that He had no need of works or sufferings to be just and saved for all these things He had from the very beginning yet was not puffed up with these things and did not raise Himself above us and arrogate to Himself power over us though He might lawfully have done so but on the contrary so acted in labouring working suffering and dying as to be like the rest of men and no otherwise than a man in fashion and in conduct as if He were in want of all things and had nothing of the form of God and yet all this He did for our sakes that He might serve us and that all the works He should do under that form of a servant might become ours For the Christian freeman will speak thus I will fast I will pray I will do this or that which is commanded me by men not as having any need of these things for justification or salvation but that I may thus comply with the will of the Pope of the bishop of such a community or such a magistrate or of my neighbour as an example to him for this cause I will do and suffer all things just as Christ did and suffered much more for me though He needed not at all to do so on His own account and made Himself for my sake under the law when He was not under the law
