Rodenhäuser,2018-03-23 The number of non state actors in the past not accountable for committing international crimes or violating human rights is proliferating rapidly Their ways of operating evolve with some groups being increasingly fragmented and others organizing transnationally or in cyber space As non state armed groups are involved in the vast majority of todays armed conflicts and crisis situations a new and increasingly important question has to be raised as to whether and at what point these groups are bound by international law and thereby accountable for their acts Breaking new
