Carmen Biblioteca Edaf:

Bibliografía Nebrisense Miguel Ángel Esparza Torres, Hans-Josef Niederehe, 1999-04-15 The Spanish humanist Antonio de Nebrija 1444-1522 is the author of an impressive body of scientific work which comprises a broad spectrum of humanistic knowledge. While the languages dealt with by Nebrija include not only Latin and Spanish but the most prominent Romance languages, his grammatical work focuses on Latin, Castilian, Greek and even Hebrew. Moreover, his bilingual lexicographical studies combine Spanish, Latin, French, Catalan and Italian. In addition, there are medical dictionaries, dictionnaires of law, works on the Holy Bible, geographical research, treatises on rhetoric and history, as well as on many other areas of contemporary knowledge. Most of these works have been published for almost five centuries, thus inspiring European and missionary linguistics as well as Western philological traditions. They have served as models and sources for a great number and range of studies conducted and published not only in Spain but nearly all over the world. Apart from the original version of Nebrija's works, numerous copies also continuously produced during the past centuries are accessible in international libraries. Many of these copies possess a great bibliographical value. The Bibliografía Nebrisense is a catalogue listing the different editions of Nebrija's highly diversified œuvre. It provides information on the technical characteristics of the individual editions and their respective locations. A complete bibliographical study is added together with an exhaustive listing of secondary sources. El humanista español Antonio de Nebrija 1444-1522 fue autor de una ingente obra que abarcó los más variados campos de los saberes humanísticos y en la que además estaban implicadas no sólo latín y español sino las principales lenguas románicas. Sus obras de tema gramatical, donde se encuentran latín, castellano, griego o hebreo, sus repertorios lexicográficos bilingües, donde se combinan español, latín, francés, catalán e italiano, sus diccionarios especializados de medicina, derecho, Sagrada Escritura o geografía, junto con sus trabajos sobre rica historia o tantos otros aspectos particulares que llamaron la atención del humanista han sobrevivido hasta nuestros días y, durante más de cinco siglos, han ejercido una influencia enorme en toda la lingüística y la tradición filológica occidental, sirviendo de modelo o de fuente para multitud de trabajos posteriores, no sólo en España. Las obras de Nebrija, en fin, fueron ininterrumpidamente editadas y ejemplares de todas ellas, a veces de valor incalculable, desde el punto de vista bibliográfico, andan repartidos por bibliotecas de todo el mundo. La Bibliografía Nebrisense es un catálogo que recoge y describe estas ediciones, informando de sus características y paradero. Se añade además un completo estudio bibliográfico y una relación exhaustiva de fuentes secundarias.
