

BOARD REPORT

It is important that members create their respective board reports, providing quality information to the board and the rest of the board members. Here is how you can create a well-structured and organized report.

Establish the Purpose

There are several purposes that a board report may serve which include bringing the board up to speed.

Present a Summary of the Recent Accomplishments & Current Activities

Introducing some great news is the best way to start your board report.

List the Upcoming Activities or Activities in Progress

You have a lot of planned activities in the future and a lot of ongoing events.

List the Financial Impact

You must proceed to the presentation of their respective financial impact.

Include Dissenting Opinion

This refers to the minority opinion that disagrees with the majority opinion.

Write the Recommendations to the Executive Director or CEO

After giving your list of events and activities as well as their financial impact, it is expected that you already form conclusions and analysis

Write the Recommendations to the Board of Directors

you must also make recommendations to the board directors, presenting your suggestions and proposals for improvement.
