Care You Have The Power:

The Health Care Power of Attorney and Living Will Francesca Coltrera,2009 Many people shy away from preparing a health care power of attorney or living will perhaps because it's difficult to ponder death or they aren't sure what their end of life wishes are or don't know how to go about doing it. But taking some time to think about what kinds of medical treatment you would or wouldn't want if you were unable to speak for yourself is can be a blessing for your loved ones

The Power of Bedside Manners in Patient Care Barry Silverman, 2025-12-07 It is evident that behavior at the bedside and with colleagues is critical to the delivery of quality healthcare. However, there is very little written about behaviors that enhance the delivery of healthcare. We live in an age where science is attacked and the internet is full of misleading information that causes many patients to question the accuracy and truthfulness of medical statements. In an environment where teamwork is essential to the provision of good medical care, this book is a written guide to healthcare providers detailing how to secure the trust and confidence of their patients. A guide for the healthcare team to work together for the benefit of their patients. It is comprised of fifteen chapters that each focus on various moral issues such as etiquette, honesty, bias and trust among others. It also offers instruction on how to listen to the patient and how to deliver sad news to them without losing hope. With the rise of technology in medicine, there is also a chapter focusing on the electronic medical record and social media. The issues of physician burnout as well as finding the joy in practicing medicine are also included in the last two chapters. Clinical cases are also used to provide specific examples of each scenario being discussed. Written with a straightforward and clear cut description of how to interact with patients and colleagues. The Power of Bedside Manners in Patient Care is a valuable resource on the introduction of patient care for early career clinicians, nurses, physician assistants, nurse practitioners and medical students.

The Self-Care Revolution Presents: Module 9 – Power of Community Robyn Benson, Kevin Snow, 2014-01-09 Who are you without community? Read these interviews and you will learn why community is the foundation for all of your life whether it is about food production or how you thrive in your work, home and school environments. Feel into your body, mind and spirit and notice how the journey of self care has played out in your life Recognize the ways in which you have nurtured yourself by eating more vibrant and alive food Have you noticed that you have a better connection to your most valued relationships including your connection to the earth Now let's take the journey further as we explore the Power of Community in your everyday life This engaging book encompasses a weekly educational and empowering teleseminar which is part of the Self Care Revolution This is an exciting opportunity to be instrumental in creating powerful changes to individual and collective wellness worldwide
