Carpathia Cecilia Woloch, 2015-06-20 Her traveling poetics are striking in the way that she defies the borders of narrative and lyric she combines the two seamlessly an enviable gift Sacramento News Review These poems move through love and death sadness and euphoria and across European and American landscapes encountering lovers strangers and beloved ghosts They arrive finally in a place of beauty mystery grief and joy Poems from this collection were selected by Marie Howe as winner of the 2006 Tupelo Press Snowbound Chapbook Award Cecilia Woloch was named 2004 Georgia Author of the Year in Poetry for her last collection Late BOA Editions Ltd 2003 She is founding director of the Summer Poetry Workshop in Idyllwild California She lives in Atlanta Georgia and Los Angeles California and travels extensively in Europe From Devils Lake Journal Celia Woloch's collection Carpathia is about distance both physical and emotional Her poems occupy a lush landscape where the natural world succumbs to loss where fat bees fall into the wine and the ghost swans have wings of death The highlights of this collection are her numerous postcard poems which feel balanced in their attempts to be both strange and authentic without becoming burdened with ironic oddity that I've seen so much in recent poetry Her postcards move making leaps with each new sentence and their prose poem form opens these poems up to be more peculiar in a way that's all together successful From The Cosmopolitan Review One of the joys of Cecilia Woloch's poetry is that it so beautifully and skilfully intermingles humour with emotional intensity sensuality and existential profoundness Underneath it all there lies a clear conviction that each of us could have been somebody else could have been born and lived somewhere else and yet We all dwell in one country O stranger the world Ennui Prophet Christopher Kennedy, 2011-06-21 Singular and deeply pleasurable Christopher Kennedy's prose poetry is a lonely anarchic nation state unto itself half vacation funspot half eerie purgatorial layover Dave Eggers The poems in Ennui Prophet Christopher Kennedy's fourth collection range from deeply personal explorations of relationships with family and friends to examinations of the political climate in the first decade of the millennium Whether personal or public Kennedy gazes through a slightly distorted lens to better see the world around us Christopher Kennedy's previous book Encouragement for a Man Falling to His Death BOA Editions Ltd 2007 received the Isabella Gardner Poetry Award He directs Syracuse University's MFA program in creative writing
