Urban Legends Alistair Fraser, 2015 Routledge Handbook of Art, Science, and Technology Studies Hannah Rogers, Megan Halpern, Dehli Hannah, Kathryn de Ridder-Vignone, 2021-12-22 Art and science work is experiencing a dramatic rise coincident with burgeoning Science and Technology Studies STS interest in this area Science has played the role of muse for the arts inspiring imaginative reconfigurations of scientific themes and exploring their cultural resonance Conversely the arts are often deployed in the service of science communication illustration and popularization STS scholars have sought to resist the instrumentalization of the arts by the sciences emphasizing studies of theories and practices across disciplines and the distinctive and complementary contributions of each The manifestation of this commonality of creative and epistemic practices is the emergence of Art Science and Technology Studies ASTS as the interdisciplinary exploration of art science This handbook defines the modes practices crucial literature and research interests of this emerging field It explores the questions methodologies and theoretical implications of scholarship and practice that arise at the intersection of art and STS Further ASTS demonstrates how the arts are intervening in STS Drawing on methods and concepts derived from STS and allied fields including visual studies performance studies design studies science communication and aesthetics and the knowledge of practicing artists and curators ASTS is predicated on the capacity to see both art and science as constructions of human knowledge making Accordingly it posits a new analytical vernacular enabling new ways of seeing understanding and thinking critically about the world This handbook provides scholars and practitioners already familiar with the themes and tensions of art science with a means of connecting across disciplines It proposes organizing principles for thinking about art science across the sciences social sciences humanities and arts Encounters with art and science become meaningful in relation to practices and materials manifest as perceptual habits background knowledge and cultural norms As the chapters in this handbook demonstrate a variety of STS tools can be brought to bear on art science so that systematic research can be conducted on this unique set of knowledge making practices Pop Goes the Decade Kevin L. Ferguson, 2019-09-03 Popular culture in the 1990s often primarily reflected millennial catastrophic anxieties The world was tightening speeding up and becoming more dangerous and dangerously connected Surely it was only a matter of time before it all came crashing down Pop Goes the Decade The Nineties explains the American 1990s for all readers The book strives to be widely representative of 1990s culture including the more obvious nostalgic versions of the decade as well as focused discussions of representations of minority populations during the decade that are often overlooked This book covers a wide variety of topics to show the decade in its richness music television film literature sports technology and more It includes an introductory timeline and background section followed by a lengthy Exploring Popular Culture section and concludes with a brief series of essays further contextualizing the controversial and influential aspects of the decade This organization allows readers both a wide exposure to the variety of experiences from the decade as well as a more focused approach to aspects of the 1990s that are still resonant today Getting It in Writing Deborah M. Stankevich, 2011-05-13 Sixteen teachers from kindergarten to college share their journeys to become outstanding writing teachers They explore methods and strategies to effectively teach writing from creative writing to research This book highlights their diverse paths and the challenges they face in instilling the art of writing in their students Moving Borders Matthew Atencio, Becky Beal, E. Missy Wright, Zane McClain, 2018-12-03 Once considered a kind of delinquent activity skateboarding is on track to join soccer baseball and basketball as an approved way for American children to pass the after school hours With family skateboarding in the San Francisco Bay Area as its focus Moving Borders explores this switch in stance integrating first person interviews and direct observations to provide a rich portrait of youth skateboarders their parents and the social and market forces that drive them toward the skate park This excellent treatise on the contemporary youth sports scene examines how modern families embrace skateboarding and the role commerce plays in this unexpected new parent culture and highlights how private corporations community leaders parks and recreation departments and nonprofits like the Tony Hawk Foundation have united to energize skate parks like soccer fields before them as platforms for community engagement and the creation of social and economic capital A Greene Country Towne Alan C. Braddock, Laura Turner Igoe, 2016-12-12 An unconventional history of Philadelphia that operates at the threshold of cultural and environmental studies A Greene Country Towne expands the meaning of community beyond people to encompass nonhuman beings things and forces By examining a diverse range of cultural acts and material objects created in Philadelphia from Native American artifacts early stoves and literary works to public parks photographs and paintings through the lens of new materialism the essays in A Greene Country Towne ask us to consider an urban environmental history in which humans are not the only protagonists This collection reimagines the city as a system of constantly evolving constituents and agencies that have interacted over time a system powerfully captured by Philadelphia artists writers architects and planners since the seventeenth century In addition to the editors contributors to this volume are Maria Farland Nate Gabriel Andrea L M Hansen Scott Hicks Michael Dean Mackintosh Amy E Menzer Stephen Nepa John Ott Sue Ann Prince and Mary I Unger Millennium Development Goals: The Indian Journey R.K.
