A near future thriller of a devastating alien invasion from the paleontologist who inspired Jurassic Park and the award winning science fiction author There were always those who disagreed with broadcasting signals into the deepest reaches of outer space because our mere existence could be taken as a threat They were right to be concerned In the spring of 2076 just days short of America's tricentennial celebrations every inhabited surface in the solar system gets wiped out by a catastrophic storm of relativistic bombs flaming swords that pierced the sky The only two survivors left on Earth exist in a submersible that had been exploring the Titanic's final resting place on the bottom of the North Atlantic In space only the settlers in small asteroid based colonies have gone unnoticed by the aliens for now But any sign of life any call for help might bring the Intruders straight to them These far flung survivors are now on their own stalked by a ruthless faceless enemy straight out of the nightmares of humanity's greatest minds those lone voices whose warnings went ignored A novel of such conceptual ferocity and scientific plausibility that it amounts to a reinvention of that old Wellsian staple alien invasion
