Carl Aubock The Workshop:

Carl Aubock Carl Aubock, Sophia Lambrakis, 2012-11-13 The work Austria's premier design and fabrication shop specializing in modern and sophisticated objects for the home in bronze, horn, wood, wicker, leather and glass for over a century is collected in Carl Aubock The Workshop. The Workshop Carl Aubock was founded in the 19th century, one of many workshops in Vienna specializing in bronze casting. However, Carl Aubock II (1900-1957) was one of the very few Viennese students who attended the Bauhaus in post-World War I Weimar, and when he returned to the Workshop he brought inspiration from this new design movement. Expert craftsmanship and superior quality materials such as hand-sewn leather, polished bronze and various woods became the signature of the Bauhaus-inspired Aubock Workshop, and many of their whimsical modernist designs stand out as prescient objets d'art. Carrying on generations of the Workshop tradition, son Carl Aubock III (1924-1993) and grandson Carl Aubock IV (born 1954) were instrumental in forging ahead with new ideas and designs while preserving the quality craftsmanship and integrity of the Workshop, which today remains among the last of its kind. Despite designing over 6,000 original objects and pieces of furniture in the early to mid-20th century, Aubock somehow has eluded the spotlight, and the Workshop's products remain cult objects of desire, cherished quietly by design greats and savvy collectors. More incredibly, only one quarter of the Workshop's designs have been documented, leaving an astounding 4,000 objects yet to be discovered. Carl Aubock The Workshop documents hundreds of signature Workshop objects culled from exclusive private collections and brings us into the Workshop itself with contemporary photographs, interviews with Carl Aubock IV, and historical documents and photographs depicting the Workshop's historic legacy. The strange and luminous world of the Viennese designer Carl Aubock (1900-57) A master of elemental materials like brass, leather, wood, and horn, Aubock had a flair for exquisitely turned curios, paperweights, corkscrews, pipe holders, and still-exert-a-magnetic-pull His larger works, Nakashima-like free-edge wooden tables with spindly brass legs, leather-sling magazine racks, and gooseneck lamps that evoke alien plant life from 1950s sci-fi flicks, have their fans. But the smaller household and office objects from the 1940s and 50s have made Aubock a full-blown cult hero. Beloved by contemporaries like Charles and Ray Eames and Walter Gropius, these pieces are now hunted down by collectors, the likes of Michael Maharam and Diane von Furstenberg. The New York Times' T Magazine Brass in Pocket Carl Aubock's Exquisite Curios, May 20, 2010 The Workshop, 2016-09-29 Mid-Century Modern - Visionary Furniture Design from Vienna Caroline Wohlgemuth, 2021-12-31 Visionary furniture design from Vienna. In 1938, Vienna lost its best and most creative minds. This rupture was manifested in all of the arts and sciences, and its mark is felt to this day, not least in the field of furniture design. With inexhaustible creativity, the Jewish furniture designers who were forced to flee Vienna continued to work while in exile. They taught at the best universities and spread their ideas and vision throughout the entire world. Their creations became classics of twentieth-century furniture design, the epitome of mid-century modern style. This book honors the memory of the exiled designers with a thorough overview of their work. It details their life stories and their visionary designs which remain as relevant and contemporary as ever and brings to light new aspects of the history of Viennese furniture design A new history of Viennese furniture design with 27 detailed biographies Numerous previously unpublished photographs and sketches Including works by Friedl Dicker Brandeis Martin Eisler Josef Frank Friedrich Kiesler Richard Neutra Bruno Pollak Margarete Sch tte Lihotzky Franz Singer Ernst Schwadron among others

A Century of Austrian Design Tulga Beyerle,Karin Hirschberger,2013-03-04 A Century of Austrian Design offers a highly accessible overview of Austrian design culture from 1900 to the present against the background of the country s extremely turbulent industrial history In the process the key aspects are explained in essays by celebrated experts The book attempts to delineate a specifically Austrian formal language citing as examples specific achievements in historical and contemporary design As it does so it also sheds light on other defining moments of Austria s design culture including the enormous potential of its inventors the phenomenon of semi industrial manufacturing and the innovative design solutions advanced by the Austrian sporting goods industry A yellow pages section with selected design addresses rounds off the volume
