Comedy of Errors Carol Evans, 2015-07-31 This first book takes me from my early days at the Australian Defence Force Academy when considering women to be equal in the forces was relatively new Similarly the Australian Defence Force Academy was still generally a new establishment with the doors opening in 1986 I arrived in 1999 when it was the first year that there was such a high number of females in the intake The years at the Australian Defence Force Academy were unique for a female and in some respects quite challenging These challenges provided the grounding for our future careers This first part takes me from my Australian Defence Force Academy days my introduction to sea life and participation in development of policy for ships and submarine being designed for the embarkment of women my life at sea and future life in intelligence I was to go on to be the senior watch officer and acting operations officer for the Australian Joint Intelligence Centre Watch Floor where I was briefing admirals and generals on a daily basis I also gained some valuable NSW police friends that provided me with unique experiences at a time they were going under corruption review It was a challenging road where I worked alongside clearance divers and submariners experienced sexual abuse and was later rewarded with a representational posting to Hawaii Along my journey I have met some remarkable people and some manipulators that hid behind the uniform It was these very experiences I believe that led to my change in life which can only be described as a comedy of errors with myself ending up in the Middle East basically living on the streets after completing seventeen years in the Royal Australian Navy Intelligence Master of Islamic Studies and Masters of International Relations Nuclear Security and being placed in prison in Austria only to end up working for the Australian government in Australia training corrections staff and prisoners and again facing life on the streets Apparently my studies experiences and skills do not mean anything in Australia

Leadership the Sven-Gran Eriksson Way Julian Birkinshaw, Stuart Crainer, 2004-08-20 Leadership the Sven Gran Eriksson Way examines the leadership style of the England football manager Sven Gran Eriksson Our argument is that Eriksson's approach is important because it brilliantly exemplifies a new leadership which defies conventional and historical stereotypes of how leaders think and behave Eriksson is not a tub thumping bellow of orders He is not a dictator Instead he is a modern leadership archetype a leader we can all learn from From Leadership the Sven Gran Eriksson Way offers a visible and successful example of this new model of leader Media Week the authors examine the mature form of leadership that Eriksson exemplifies the level headed long termism that learns from failure encourages responsibility and keeps it simple The Business I very much enjoyed it and in particular the way it gelled good business management principles with their application to football as illustrated by many of the decisions taken by our national coach who has brought confidence assurance team spirit and a more worldwide awareness to our England team giving everybody optimism Gordon Taylor Chief Executive of the Professional Footballers Association
