The Decolonisation of Zimbabwe Kate Law, 2020-05-21 Rhodesia's illegal Unilateral Declaration of Independence UDI in 1965 is an act that not only shaped regional politics but also had a profound effect on Britain's attempt to retreat from its empire. This edited collection brings together leading voices in the field whose contributions on the role of finance, big business and the regional and international actors involved in the country's negotiated independence update long held historiographical wisdoms signalling a revival in economic and diplomatic explanations for the country's decolonisation. In particular, they shed fresh light on the roles played in the decolonisation of Zimbabwe by economic private business and political liberation movements. Western and Southern African governments' actors that until now have been studied with very limited access to primary sources. As scholarship on Zimbabwe is currently dominated by studies that seek to understand the crisis in which the country has recently found itself, this collection acts as a clarion call that reinforces the importance of studies of earlier historical processes. In doing so, the book provides a more nuanced understanding of the continuities and discontinuities between Zimbabwe's colonial and postcolonial history and examines the roles played by external governments and individuals in the decolonisation of Zimbabwe. This book was originally published as a special issue of The Journal of Imperial and Commonwealth History. World Meetings: Social & Behavioral Sciences, Human Services & Management, 1994

Sir George Trevelyan, Residential Adult Education and the New Age Sharon Clancy, 2023-11-29 This book examines the development of British post Second World War short term residential adult education through the lens of the Shropshire Adult Education College 1948-1976 and the tenure of Sir George Trevelyan as its first warden. Trevelyan is acknowledged as the godfather of new age spiritualism in the UK and is credited with the development of eclectic and esoteric learning opportunities in arts, traditional crafts, culture and ecology. Embodying the spirit of a new national drive for optimism and enterprise in the post war period, Trevelyan and his contemporaries at other colleges took risks and innovated in new pedagogical approaches to adult education, capturing the imagination of hundreds of students before being stifled by an increasingly restrictive policy framework and financial strictures. The book considers the ideological drivers and tensions behind this unique form of education, its inception, evolution and virtual demise, and seeks to learn from its complex history to inform education in the future. World Meetings Outside U.S.A. and Canada, 1999 World Meetings Outside
