Combating Human Trafficking Michael J. Palmiotto, 2014-12-01 A centuries old crime human trafficking occurs not only in undeveloped countries but also in some surprising locations Right here in the United States individuals are recruited transported and held by unlawful means either through deception or under threat of violence Approaching the topic from a law enforcement perspective Combating Human The Politics of Combating Human Trafficking in the United States Nancy E. Marion, Kimberly J. Hufgard, 2025-03-04 This book examines political responses to the problem of human trafficking including proposals actions legislative and executive and statements made by politicians government agencies and civil society organizations to solve or mitigate the crime of human trafficking The objective is not just to recognize the nature and impact of human trafficking but to understand the approaches used or recommended to solve the problem and the motivations behind such strategies The issue of human trafficking has become particularly important given the charged environment regarding border politics The book details the various policy options that have been proposed supported opposed or passed by US politicians over the past five to ten years This includes decisions made by presidents legislators national and state agencies and interest groups Court decisions on human trafficking policies and media coverage of events are also explored This political analysis is designed to help readers understand what motivated the proposals designed to address human trafficking and the impact those policies had or are having This book is ideal as a primary text for college courses in human trafficking and modern slavery or a supplemental text for a range of scholarly courses of study including human rights criminal justice law and political science It is recommended for anyone with an interest in human trafficking and what might be done to stop it Bridging the Gaps in Our Efforts to Combat Human Trafficking John Winterdyk, Sheldon Zhang, 2025-06-27 This book brings together a rich international and cross sectional collection of articles that examine the current knowledge on gaps in the research realm or intervention development as they relate to our effort to combat human trafficking modern day slavery The anthology includes chapters from established scholars practitioners and persons with lived experience Modern day slavery or human trafficking has attracted much attention from around the world in the past few decades and engendered significant growth in counter trafficking interventions as well as empirical research on related prevalence estimation and program evaluation However significant gaps remain in our knowledge on how to address the crime Understanding these gaps is essential in informing research policy and general response protocols This anthology represents a rich international collection of contributions both academic and non academic that offer a comprehensive overview of the most up to date gaps in our response protocols The articles also offer recommendations that if acknowledged could help to impact the prevalence of human trafficking at a local and international level This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Human Trafficking Global Jurisprudential Apartheid in the Twenty-First Century Howard Tafara Chitimira, Artwell Nhemachena, Tapiwa Victor Warikandwa, 2021-09-27 In Global

Jurisprudential Apartheid in the Twenty First Century Universalism and Particularism in International Law the contributors argue that the world is witnessing the formation of a global jurisprudential apartheid despite the promotion of democracy equality human rights and humanitarianism Examining organisations such as international criminal courts the World Trade Organisation the United Nations Security Council the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank the contributors unpack the challenges of global jurisprudential apartheid In particular they analyse the ways in which these organizations hold and contribute to the increasing inequalities between the Global North and the Global South Ultimately Global Jurisprudential Apartheid in the Twenty First Century shows that globalisation is a variant of the apartheid era particularism and not universalism working to advantage the Global North while disadvantaging the Global South under the pretense of humanitarianism
