Dr. Christopher Doyle, 2022-07-12 The research writing and analysis in the pages of this work show the story of how Generation X grew up during one of the greatest periods of technological social political economic and educational change in US history Included in that story is how the greater percentage of them grew up in the church but then walked away en masse Today Generation X is the smallest percentage of Main Line and Catholic Church membership while the overwhelming majority of church membership is made up of an aging population of Baby Boomers and Silent Generation folk In ten years time what will be the state of the church when many of the current membership has passed on to eternal life or are no longer able to do what it is that they're doing today Generation X could well be the answer to much of the solution Generation X is generally at a more comfortable place in their lives and are asking the questions about the meaning of their lives while considering issues of mortality Yet at the same time they're having now to care for parents grandchildren and for many Gen Xers their own children still They're busy and committed but they're also spiritually hungry Having had a relationship at one point in their lives they're not completely foreign to what the church can be but the ball is really in the church's court How the church chooses to respond to Generation X could mean life or church closure It's a conversation that needs to take place and that conversation begins here Matthew Henry's Commentary on the Whole Bible Matthew Henry, 1961 Matthew Henry Concise Commentary on the Whole Bible Matthew Henry, Thomas Scott, 1987-06 Matthew Henry's Commentary on the Whole Bible ...
