Culture in School Learning Etta R. Hollins,2015-06-05 Challenging educators to better understand themselves and their students this text presents a powerful process for developing a teaching perspective that embraces the centrality of culture in school learning. The six part process covers examining culture, personalizing culture, inquiring about students' cultures and communities, applying knowledge about culture to teaching, formulating theory or a conceptual framework linking culture and school learning, and transforming professional practice to better meet the needs of students from different cultural and experiential backgrounds. All aspects of the process are interrelated and interdependent. Two basic procedures employed in this process are presented: constructing an operational definition of culture that reveals its deep meaning in cognition and learning, and applying the reflective interpretive inquiry RIQ approach to making linkages between students' cultural and experiential backgrounds and classroom instruction. Pedagogical features in each chapter include Focus Questions, Chapter Summaries, Suggested Learning Experiences, Critical Reading lists, A Companion Website, and new for the Third Edition, www.routledge.com/cw/Hollins provides additional student resources.

A Guide to Writing in English as a Second Or Foreign Language Dan J. Tannacito, 1995. This bibliography offers English as a Second Language (ESL) and English as a Foreign Language (EFL) specialists and non-specialists a listing of almost 3,500 works in the field of writing in ESL/EFL at all educational levels from 1937 through 1993. It includes works focusing on how non-native speakers write in English, how they learn to write in English, how ESL and native English speaker (NES) compositions compare, how English is taught in contexts where it is used as a second or foreign language, and instructional materials developed to support writing in a second foreign language. Citations include bibliographies, monographs, textbooks, periodicals, dissertations, and some unannotated master's theses, conference papers, and Educational Resources Information Center (ERIC) documents. An introductory section and a list of native languages addressed in the works precede the annotated entries. Author and subject indexes are also included.
