Civilization and Its Discontents Sigmund Freud,2011 A translation of a 1929 text in which Freud summarized his views on culture from a psychoanalytic perspective CIVILIZATION AND ITS DISCONTENTS - Freud Sigmund Freud,2024-02-09 Sigmund Freud 1856-1939 was an Austrian neurologist and important psychologist He is considered the father of psychoanalysis which significantly influenced contemporary social psychology In Civilization and its Discontents Freud argues that civilization forces us to renounce the individual's instinctual pursuit of pleasure and aggression Religion and religious ideas help achieve this through taming human instinctual expression Certainly his interpretation contributes to the understanding of religious ideas and experiences and cultural and social development within a psychological perspective However his negation of the possibility of ultimate realities and his overly narrow focus on instinctual desire lead him to overlook the value of human religious lives Perhaps it is not the super ego that gives humans the sense of guilt but the finitude of being that humans express Maybe it is not civilization that obstructs the individual's pursuit of happiness but the tendency of human beings to objectify everything In fact religion may be well suited to helping human beings overcome finitude and objectification Civilization and Its Discontent is considered one of Freud's most important and widely read works and was described in 1989 by historian Peter Gay as one of the most influential and studied books in the field of modern psychology

Freud, 1948 Contesting the Far Right Claudia Leeb, 2024-04-23 Why have so many people responded to the insecurity exploitation alienation and isolation of precarity capitalism by supporting the far right In this timely book Claudia Leeb argues that psychoanalytic and feminist critical theory illuminates how economic and psychological factors interact to produce this extreme political shift Contesting the Far Right examines right wing recruitment tactics in the United States and Austria where people discontented with the status quo have turned to far right parties and movements that further cement capitalism's adverse effects Leeb contends that Freudian psychoanalytic theory and early Frankfurt School Critical Theory provide analytical tools to explain this apparent contradiction in psychological terms Living under precarity capitalism generates feelings of failure and anxiety which people experience as non wholeness because it has become difficult if not impossible to live up to the fetish of economic interpersonal and bodily success and the far right preys on such feelings Its psychologically oriented propaganda tactics produce the illusion of wholeness and a positive sense of self while leaving the socioeconomic conditions that cause people's suffering intact At the same time they remove the inhibitions that keep people's repressed aggression and racist and sexist attitudes in check To demonstrate the workings of this process Leeb compares cases including Trump and the alt right in the United States and the Freedom Party and the identitarian movement in Austria At once theoretically rich and politically engaged this book also offers ways to resist the far right and counter the psychological appeal of its propaganda techniques
