Capturing Education Envisioning Building Colleges:

Capturing Education Paul Boyer, 2015 Capturing Education examines the emergence and growth of the first tribal colleges. Based on extended interviews with more than a dozen founders, long-serving presidents, and non-Indian advocates, it explores the motivations of early leaders. It also describes how they overcame widespread assumptions that Indians did not need a college education or were not capable of running their own colleges. This story, rarely told, is filled with moments of drama as leaders describe how they fought to gain funding and respect. Against the odds, the men and women featured in these pages demonstrate how a good idea, when pursued with energy and idealism, can gain support and succeed. Book cover Empowering Entrepreneurial Communities and Ecosystems Morgan R. Clevenger, Michael W-P Fortunato, 2022-07-15 Entrepreneurial Communities and Ecosystems: Case Study Insights aims to provide applied examples that embody the theories, principles, and processes that contribute to empowering everyday entrepreneurial communities and ecosystems. Relying on a diversity of narratives from a wide range of entrepreneurial communities, entrepreneurial ecosystems, and organizations, this book presents a collection of case studies that take the reader inside the minds of leaders who are working to empower entrepreneurs and build entrepreneurial ecosystems and entrepreneurial communities, sometimes from scratch. The book features research and stories from entrepreneurs, development agencies, entrepreneurial support and assistance organizations, i.e., feeders and supports, governments, and involved citizens and local leaders in their quest to make their communities more entrepreneurial. The book presents an analytic frame through which the case studies are cross-analyzed, providing meta-guidelines for pursuing a broad range of strategies for supporting local and regional entrepreneurial action. This research volume is equally useful as an undergraduate or graduate text on the sociology of entrepreneurs and entrepreneurship as it is a field guide for ecosystem builders, policy makers, nonprofits, and entrepreneurship and social researchers worldwide.

Religion and the American University James W. Fraser, 2025-07-01 Explores religion's historic and present-day role in American universities. Once the unifying center of American higher education, religion has undergone a dramatic transformation over the past 220 years. From its origins as the core of a unified understanding of truth as it was taught at the nation's first colleges to its current presence on the periphery of campus life, religion has both shaped and been shaped by the evolution of the American university. In Religion and the American University, James W. Fraser explores the complex relationship between faith and higher education. While many histories of higher education rarely focus on religion after the Civil War, and studies of religion often neglect its ties to academia, this book bridges the gap between the two histories, offering a richly detailed chronological account of the shifting role of religion in American colleges and universities over more than two centuries. Through key institutional examples, Fraser illuminates how the place of religion evolved from the dominance of Protestantism in the nineteenth century to the broad spectrum of faiths, spiritualities, and secular philosophies represented on campuses today. This compelling study examines how student-led organizations, chaplains, religious studies departments and local communities have kept faith vibrant in academia despite its absence from the dominant university culture of the twenty first century Essential reading for educators historians faith leaders and anyone interested in the intersection of faith and education Religion and the American University offers a fresh perspective on why religion remains a vital and misunderstood aspect of campus life in the twenty first century Without Destroying Ourselves John A. Goodwin,2022-03 Without Destroying Ourselves is an intellectual history of Native activism seeking greater access to and control of higher education in the twentieth century John A Goodwin traces themes of Henry Roe Cloud s Ho Chunk vision for Native intellectual leadership and empowerment in the early 1900s to the later missions of tribal colleges and universities TCUs and education based self determination movements of the 1960s onward Vital to Cloud s work was the idea of how to build from Native identity and adapt without destroying that identity As the central themes of the movement for Native control in higher education developed over the course of several decades a variety of Native activists carried Cloud s vision forward Goodwin explores how Elizabeth Bender Cloud Ojibwe D Arcy McNickle Salish Kootenai Jack Forbes Powhatan Renap Delaware Lenape and others built on and contributed to this common thread of Native intellectual activism Goodwin demonstrates that Native activism for self determination was never snuffed out by the swing of the federal government s pendulum away from tribal governance and toward termination Moreover efforts for Native control in education remained a vital aspect of that activism Without Destroying Ourselves documents this period through the full accreditation of TCUs in the late 1970s and reinforces TCUs continuing relevance in confronting the unique needs and challenges of Native communities today Our People Believe in Education Cameron M. Shriver,Bobbe Burke,2025-10 The story of a tribe and university with almost nothing in common aside from a shared name that collaborated to support Indigenous language and cultural revitalization Ethnic Minority-Serving Institutions Weiyan Xiong,2020-10-28 This book presents a comparative study of the history and development of indigenous and ethnic higher education in the US and China The author focuses on institutions serving American Indians and Alaska Natives AIANs and Chinese Ethnic Minorities CEMs such as Tribal Colleges and Universities TCUs in the US and Ethnic Minority Serving Institutions EMSIs in China Chapters center voices within indigenous and ethnic education including experts senior administrators and faculty members as well as AIAN tribal leaders and activists These voices enrich the study and provide context to explore the issues and challenges surrounding ethnic and minority serving higher education institutions today Finally the author addresses strategies and practices for the future which will better serve AIAN and CEM students and communities South Dakota History ,2018 Educational institutions pamphlets ,1915 Imagining a Renaissance in Teacher Education Cheryl J. Craig,Louise F. Deretchin,2008 Imagining a Renaissance Teacher in Education encompasses a wide swath of topics ranging from the need to discuss the psychic rewards ofteaching and adding care to the vision of education to the revamping of particular courses and apprising student teachers of their legal rights before placing them in schools With chapters written by internationally acclaimed teacher educators and with the voices of teachers children and principals are threaded throughout this book offers principles of teacher education practice that have been gleaned over time from an international meta analysis
