The Principal as a Learning-Leader M. Scott Norton, Larry K. Kelly, 2012-12-03 Expanding a principal's formal education and training The Principal as Learning Leader is a administrator's guide to improving student achievement showing practitioners how to focus on the individual academic performance of each and every student and to work with the school staff and community to develop a learning culture that supports student success Norton and Kelly show current principals how to assess their present behaviors relative to learning leadership Providing a clear definition of learning leadership and identifying successful practices most commonly implemented by true learning leaders this book features the administrative tools and accountability strategies that will allow principals to create a culture of learning leadership among all school personnel which is key to engaging students and the community in the learning process

Common Core English Language Arts in a PLC at Work®, Grades 9-12 Douglas Fisherr, Nancy Frey, 2013-01-09 Explore strategies for integrating the Common Core State Standards for English language arts for grades 9-12 in this resource which focuses on areas of instruction curriculum assessment and intervention You'll also learn how to implement the CCSS within the powerful PLC at Work™ process Critical chapter opening questions guide discussion and help you leverage the CCSS to optimize student learning

PLC+ Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, John Almarode, Karen Flories, Dave Nagel, 2019-05-16 What makes a powerful and results driven Professional Learning Community PLC The answer is collaborative work that expands the emphasis on student learning and leverages individual teacher efficacy into collective teacher efficacy PLC Better Decisions and Greater Impact by Design calls for strong and effective PLCs plus and that plus is YOU Until now the PLC movement has been focused almost exclusively on students and what they were or were not learning But keeping student learning at the forefront requires that we also recognize the vital role that you play in the equation of teaching and learning This means that PLCs must take on two additional challenges maximizing your individual expertise while harnessing the power of the collaborative expertise you can develop with your peers PLC is grounded in four cross cutting themes a focus on equity of access and opportunity high expectations for all students a commitment to building individual self efficacy and the collective efficacy of the professional learning community and effective team activation and facilitation to move from discussion to action The PLC framework supports educators in considering five essential questions as they work together to improve student learning Where are we going Where are we now How do we move learning forward What did we learn today Who benefited and who did not benefit The PLC framework leads educators to question practices as well as outcomes It broadens the focus on student learning to encompass educational equity and teaching efficacy and in doing so it leads educators to plan and implement learning communities that maximize individual expertise while harnessing the power of collaborative efficacy

A Charter School Principal's Story Barbara Smith, 2017-12-05 What happens when a Canadian principal guided by the teachings of Fullan and Hargreaves takes on the role of school leader in an inner city charter school in the

United States This inside story of a principal in the DC charter school system reveals much about the desire for educators and students to experience more than a life of multiple choice testing that tends to be so commonplace in these schools While such a case adds to the mound of research that supports the change takes time findings it nevertheless demonstrates the reality on a day to day basis of what s worth fighting for in schools Student and teacher engagement and empowerment matter and to get to such ends a school must fiercely focus on targets well beyond test scores This book speaks about how a budget reveals school values and by shifting resources to support staff and student development a school coping with regular turnover can be filled with more confident and capable community members A school crawling with leaders emerged as more student teacher and non instructional staff were supported in new roles aimed at building an inspired culture with the talent and capacity to move others to action The old ways of doing school do not address the needs of the 21st century learner and while many forces with limited views of education were at play this story does provide an example of what promising things can and should happen to increase engagement and learning in more charter schools across America Dr Barbara Smith s narrative of her times in public charter schools offers all of us insights into the struggle to create schools of high academic quality and compassionate care worthy of her educational mandate and mission David Booth Professor Emeritus The Ontario Institute for Studies in Education University of Toronto Dr Smith s message inspires me to be an advocate for education and her work will inspire you as well Jalen Rose Chair of Board of Directors Jalen Rose Leadership Academy Detroit Michigan ESPN Commentator This inside look provides an opportunity for innovation in a field that has held to aging standards for far too long Diane C Manica Former Director Leadership and Accreditation University of Detroit Mercy
