Jan Wilson,2010-10-01 The rise and fall of a feminist reform powerhouse Jan Doolittle Wilson offers the first comprehensive history of the umbrella organization founded by former suffrage leaders in order to coordinate activities around women s reform Encompassing nearly every major national women s organization of its time the Women s Joint Congressional Committee WJCC evolved into a powerful lobbying force for the legislative agendas of more than twelve million women Critics and supporters alike came to recognize it as the most powerful lobby in Washington Examining the WJCC s most consequential and contentious campaigns Wilson traces how the group s strategies rhetoric and success generated congressional and grassroots support for their far reaching progressive reforms But the committee s early achievements sparked a reaction by big business that challenged and ultimately limited the programs these women envisioned Using the WJCC as a lens Wilson analyzes women s political culture during the 1920s She also sheds new light on the initially successful ways women lobbied for social legislation the limitations of that process for pursuing class based reforms and the enormous difficulties the women soon faced in trying to expand public responsibility for social welfare A volume in the series Women in American History edited by Anne Firor Scott Susan Armitage Susan K Cahn and Deborah Gray White

Mothering, Public Leadership, and Women's Life Writing

Claire Wolfteich, 2017-07-31 In Mothering Public Leadership and Women's Life Writing Claire E Wolfteich presents a series of case studies in Christian spirituality bringing mothers' autobiographical writing into focus for theological reflection. From the medieval mystic Margery Kempe to the twentieth century activist Dorothy Day from African American preacher Jarena Lee to labor organizer Dolores Huerta the book mines women's first person writing surfacing critical issues for theological analysis. Listening deeply to these diverse maternal voices the book advances creative theological reflection on work vocation time poverty Sabbath and spiritual guidance. Mothering Public Leadership and Women's Life Writing demonstrates the significance of the study of mothering for theology and spirituality studies and the import of life writing as an underutilized source for practical theology.
