Daily Thoughts for Priests John Baptist Hogan, 1899 Daily Thoughts for Priests (Classic Reprint) John B.

Hogan, 2015-07-12 Excerpt from Daily Thoughts for Priests Most priests especially in missionary countries such as ours are busy men Interests of all kinds religious and secular their own and those of their people claim their attention almost every day and at all hours of the day Those who escape this constant pressure of business or of duty are still liable to be caught up and carried along by the rush of the world around them and too often they yield to it without resistance Some are so restless by temperament or by habit that even when entirely undisturbed from without they find it difficult to settle down quietly to anything of a purely mental kind How detrimental such conditions are to that life with things unseen so necessary in the priesthood need not be insisted upon About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
