Dances with Devils Jacques Pauw, 2011-02-28 For more than a decade Jacques Pauw has traversed his native continent in pursuit of warlords and drug traffickers child soldiers and charlatans adventure and anarchy What he found was a rich array of personalities and a panoply of stories ranging from the profoundly tragic to the intensely personal Pauw's stories range from South Africa to Rwanda from Sierra Leone and the Sudan to Mozambique Readers are taken behind the scenes of sensational news reports with compassion humour and occasional cynicism and emerge in the knowledge that even if it's true that there is nothing new out of Africa the writer has found fresh ways to present time honoured tales of love life misery and mortality

Killing for Profit Julian Rademeyer, 2012-11-08 A terrifying true story of greed corruption depravity and ruthless criminal enterprise On the black markets of Southeast Asia rhino horn is worth more than gold cocaine and heroin This is the chilling story of a more than two year long investigation into a dangerous criminal underworld where merciless syndicates will stop at nothing to attain their prize It is a tale of greed folly and corruption and of an increasingly desperate battle to save the rhino which has survived for more than 50 million years from extinction Killing for Profit is a meticulous devastating and revelatory account of one of the world's most secretive trades It exposes poachers gangsters con men mercenaries killers gunrunners diplomats government officials and other key players behind the slaughter And it follows the bloody trail from the front lines of the rhino wars in South Africa Zimbabwe and Mozambique to the medicine markets of Vietnam and the lair of a wildlife trafficking kingpin on the banks of the Mekong River in Laos

Showing Remorse Richard Weisman, 2016-04-01 Whether or not wrongdoers show remorse and how they show remorse are matters that attract great interest both in law and in popular culture In capital trials in the United States it can be a question of life or death whether a jury believes that a wrongdoer showed remorse And in wrongdoings that capture the popular imagination public attention focuses not only on the act but on whether the perpetrator feels remorse for what they did But who decides when remorse should be shown or not shown and whether it is genuine or not genuine In contrast to previous academic studies on the subject the primary focus of this work is not on whether the wrongdoer meets these expectations over how and when remorse should be shown but on how the community reacts when these expectations are met or not met Using examples drawn from Canada the United States and South Africa the author demonstrates that the showing of remorse is a site of negotiation and contention between groups who differ about when it is to be expressed and how it is to be expressed The book illustrates these points by looking at cases about which there was conflict over whether the wrongdoer should show remorse or whether the feelings that were shown were sincere Building on the earlier analysis the author shows that the process of deciding when and how remorse should be expressed contributes to the moral ordering of society as a whole This book will be of interest to those in the fields of sociology law law and society and criminology

Zuma Jeremy Gordin,2010-11-22 The first edition of Zuma published in late 2008 concluded with Jacob Zuma's future balancing on a knife's edge National elections loomed but so did corruption charges and endless court battles Since then Zuma's star has spectacularly risen the corruption charges were dropped he led the ANC to election victory and duly became President of South Africa and his new cabinet and government appointments were generally well received But he has also recently suffered a huge blow with revelations of another love child this time with the daughter of soccer supremo Irvine Khoza Many of his supporters have distanced themselves from him and Zuma is looking isolated Pundits are once again wondering how long he'll survive as President In this revised and updated edition Jeremy Gordin takes the reader right up to present He covers in detail the highs and lows of Zuma's past 18 months including the final salvos of his legal battles as well as his first year as President New material in this edition also includes the Pedro document a document Zuma wrote in 1986 and accurate information on his wives and children

and peace in Mozambique and beyond Memories at Low Altitude spans four decades of southern African history from the point of view of one of its main protagonists Jacinto Veloso fought in the Mozambican liberation struggle and served as a Minister in Samora Machel's cabinet after independence when the region was dominated by civil war and the conflict between East and West Veloso's story covers many fascinating issues of this period among them the conflict between FRELIMO and the South African backed RENAMO the negotiations that resulted in the Nkomati Accord in which he was a key participant the processes that contributed to the withdrawal of Cuban and South African troops from Angola and the independence of Namibia the impact of post independence Mozambique's strictly socialist economy and its subsequent shift to a more market orientated approach and the aeroplane crash in which Samora Machel was killed Veloso's insights are particularly interesting given his role in the commission of inquiry into the crash this extraordinary book celebrated journalist Jacques Pauw gives a human face to some of the most tumultuous events in recent African history Rat Roads chronicles the remarkable journey of Kennedy Gihana a young Tutsi man who fought against the genocidaires in Rwanda but was part of an army that committed horrifying atrocities in Africa's bloodiest conflict Seeking education instead of war he walked thousands of kilometres to South Africa where he slept in parks lived on the street and worked as a low paid security guard until he had saved enough money to enrol for a law degree In 2011 he took the podium at the University of Pretoria to receive a master's degree in international law Rat Roads combines many strands of life in

Defamation and Freedom of Speech Dario Milo,2008-02-14 The book examines the law of defamation and argues that it must be reformed in a number of ways in order to balance two important constitutional rights the right to reputation and the right to freedom of expression The book analyses how far the media and others should be entitled to go in reporting on important matters of public interest in society such as corruption and misconduct in public office It also examines where the line should be drawn between a public figure's public and private life Journal of Namibian Studies ,2007 Book
