Church Campaign Themes:

Big Ideas for a Better Sunday School Clarence Sexton,2000-08-31 Money Matters in Church Aubrey Malphurs,Steve Stroope,2007-07-01 Money Matters in Church helps leaders to discover a one stop comprehensive model for managing finances and fundraising It guides leaders of any size church or ministry to create a culture of giving that supports savvy faithful and legal financing The authors present a biblical theology of stewardship that supports ways to develop donors and maximize contributions enact a strategic budget and effective audit process project income and expenses work with banks compensate staff and address debt The book s practical step by step approach makes finance issues understandable for leaders without a business background The Y-B-H Handbook of Church Planting (Yes, But How?) Roger N. McNamara,Ken Davis,2005-05 This book covers all the crucial issues of the church planting task It tells how to organize and grow the new church working toward the ultimate goal of corporate reproduction

A Church in Search of Itself Robert Blair Kaiser,2007-04-10 A deeply informed look at the intensifying struggle over the future of the Catholic Church Robert Blair Kaiser examines the most important and divisive issues confronting the Church the sex abuse scandal a shortage of priests due to the insistence upon celibacy the ban on contraception the roles of women in the Church the increased participation of laypeople in Church affairs He gives us an in depth and behind the scenes view of six of the cardinals who gathered in Rome in April 2005 to choose a new pope and through them makes clear why Catholics worldwide are increasingly leaving the Church or defying Church doctrine With passion and heartfelt concern Robert Blair Kaiser brilliantly illuminates the issues and the combatants in the battle for the soul of the Catholic world From the Trade Paperback edition

Practical Inter-church Methods Albert Franklin McGarrah,1919 The Living Church ,1917 The Expositor,1918 God and Caesar in China Jason Kindopp,Carol Lee Hamrin,2004-04-21 In the late 1970s when Mao s Cultural Revolution ushered in China s reform era religion played a small role in the changes the country was undergoing There were few symbols of religious observance and the practice of religion seemed a forgotten art Yet by the new millennium China s government reported that more than 200 million religious believers worshiped in 85 000 authorized venues and estimates by outside observers continue to rise The numbers tell the story Buddhists as in the past are most numerous with more than 100 million adherents Muslims number 18 million with the majority concentrated in the northwest region of Xinjiang By 2000 China s Catholic population had swelled from 3 million in 1949 to more than 12 million surpassing the number of Catholics in Ireland Protestantism in China has grown at an even faster pace during the same period multiplying from 1 million to at least 30 million followers China now has the world s second largest evangelical Christian population behind only the United States In addition a host of religious and quasi spiritual groups and sects has also sprouted up in virtually every corner of Chinese society Religion s dramatic revival in post Mao China has generated tensions between the ruling Communist Party state and China s increasingly diverse population of religious adherents Such tensions are rooted in centuries old governing practices and reflect the pressures of rapid modernization. The state's response has been a mixture of accommodation and repression with the aim of preserving monopoly control over religious organization. Its inability to do so effectively has led to cycles of persecution of religious groups that resist the party's efforts. American concern over official acts of religious persecution has become a leading issue in U.S. policy toward China. The passage of the 1998 International Religious Freedom Act which institutionalized concern over religious freedom abroad in U.S. foreign policy cemented this issue as an item on the agenda of U.S. China relations. God and Caesar in China examines China's religion policy, the history and growth of Catholic and Protestant churches in China and the implications of church-state friction for relations between the United States and China, concluding with recommendations for U.S. policy. Contributors include Jason Kindopp (George Washington University), Daniel H. Bays (Calvin College), Mickey Spiegel (Human Rights Watch), Chan Kim Kwong (Hong Kong Christian Council), Jean Paul Wiest (Chinese University of Hong Kong), Richard Madsen (University of California San Diego), Xu Yihua (Fudan University), Liu Peng (Chinese Academy of Social Sciences) and Carol Lee Hamrin (George Mason University).
