Carousel Of Illusions:

Carousel of Illusions Consuela Shorter, 2012-04-01 Carousel of Illusions is a book of poetry covering a topic that is the very foundation of life itself. The concept and experience of Love takes many forms. In these pages love is explored from all angles. The poetry addresses love of self, a loving relationship with God, the love of parent to child, and a more provocative sensual love. This book takes you on a journey through love and relationships. You will experience all the love has to offer—the ups and downs, whimsical colors and sounds and surprises. Love is cyclical and is awaiting us around every corner. If you look for it, it will find you.

Theatre and War, 1933-1945 Michael Balfour, 2001 On an April evening in 1934 on the River Arno in Florence an air squadron, an infantry, a cavalry brigade, fifty trucks, four field and machine gun batteries, ten field radio stations and six photoelectric units presented a piece of theatre. The mass spectacle 18 BL involved over two thousand amateur actors and was performed before an audience of twenty thousand. 18 BL is one of eleven extraordinary essays collected together for the first time. The essays have been selected and edited from a wide range of publications dating from the 1940s to the 1990s. The authors are academics, cultural historians and theatre practitioners, some with direct experience of the harsh conditions of Europe during the war. Each author critically assesses the function of theatre in times of world crisis, exploring themes of Fascist aesthetic propaganda in Italy and Germany, of theatre re-education programmes in the Gulags of Russia, of cultural sustenance for the troops at the front and interned German refugees in the UK, or cabaret shows as a currency for survival in Jewish concentration camps.
