In One Child at a Time, experienced literacy specialist and consultant Pat Johnson provides a framework she has used with hundreds of students in scores of classrooms to help teachers understand and assist individual children. The four-step process outlined in the book enables teachers to focus carefully on specific behaviors and needs, analyze them with theoretical and practical lenses, design targeted instruction, and then assess and refine the teaching in conferences with the child. Pat shows how to use it.

Lessons in Community Mari Dean, 2015-12-29 Building an engaging and thriving classroom community is the goal of every teacher. In Lessons in Community, elementary school teacher Mari Dean shares an asset-based and step-by-step process for reimagining classroom management and social emotional learning. Whether it's helping students navigate friendship issues, identify their own emotions, and learn tools and strategies to regulate, advocate for themselves, or problem-solve the day-to-day issues of classroom life, Lessons in Community provides strategies, lessons, and stories to get you started or help you take the next step in your journey. Inside this book, you'll find 24 classroom lessons organized around themes of regulation, relationships, problem-solving, and agency. Ready to use anchor charts, sample teacher language, role-play scenarios, and read-aloud suggestions to accompany the lessons. A process and seed ideas for creating your own responsive lessons.
