world that was lost and the deep past of prehistory and imagination that returns with this loss In Payne s view post apocalyptic fiction is political theory in fictional form Instead of producing arguments in favor of a particular form of life it shows what it would be like to live that life In a world in which there is no more capitalism and no more nation state characters have to relearn basic survival skills and return to earlier forms of social life They acquire new capabilities which bring new satisfactions they could not have anticipated in the world that is gone In the post apocalyptic world they disentangle themselves from old ways of thinking and their misconceptions of human happiness In this way Payne argues post apocalyptic fiction is the pastoral of our time The individualism and small scale social relations of post apocalyptic fiction are not naive but instead the necessary ground for choosing the freedoms and capabilities readers would want to see preserved in any future collective that might emerge from them

After London; Or, Wild England Richard Jefferies,2023 One could consider Jefferies book to be a groundbreaking piece of post apocalyptic literature After a sudden unexplained tragedy has killed out the majority of England s population the countryside returns to its natural state and those who are left choose a fairly archaic way of life The first section The Relapse into Barbarism is a description of the loss of civilization and its consequences by some subsequent historians It features a lovely depiction of how nature reclaimed England The second chapter named Wild England is an adventure that takes place in a culture and environment that are both wild and takes place many years later The book s flaws are more than made up for by the great writing notably the unsettlingly prophetic descriptions of the post apocalyptic city and countryside was released by Cassell Company in 1885 Everything became green in the first spring after London ended The novel After London by Richard Jefferies is considered a classic work of eco apocalyptic literature Jefferies was married in 1874 and relocated closer to London in 1877 while still writing to support his wife and two kids Though he was both unwell and penniless the years from 1882 until his death in 1887 were when he was most creative
