Francesco Cesari, Roberto Curti, 2024-06-06 With more than 180 films during a career spanning several decades Jesus Franco 1930 2013 was an extraordinarily prolific and chameleon like Spanish director covering virtually every genre from horror to film noir adventure and erotic and adapting to all kinds of productions. This book examines his life and career between his first short film to the moment he cut his ties with his home country and became an international director with a detailed production history and critical analysis of his films placing his work within the social and political context of Spanish culture politics and cinema. Franco's most critically praised works are covered namely such cult horror classics as The Awful Dr Orlof and The Diabolical Dr Z as well as his working relationship with Orson Welles whom he was to direct in a 1964 unfinished adaptation of Treasure Island. Detailed production history and critical analysis of his films are provided placing his work within the context of Spanish culture politics and film industry. The book also includes plenty of never before seen bits of information and in depth discussion of Franco's previously uncovered scripts essays and short films as well as his unmade projects of the period.
