Destination Fabulous Anna Murphy, 2023-03-02 Full of uplifting advice, practical wisdom, and kind intelligence, I certainly felt more fabulous after reading it. Elizabeth Day: An encouraging and exhilarating celebration of ageing. Full of life wisdom for mind, body, and spirit. Victoria Hislop: Brilliant, absolutely brilliant. Lorraine Kelly: A witty, warm, wise, and illuminating guide to how to be your best self inside and out. Deliciously upbeat and brimful of positivity, it's a perfect roadmap for the years ahead. I loved it. Mariella Frostrup: Finally, a book that challenges our tedious fixation with youth and turns the old rules about ageing upside down and inside out. With practical advice and spiritual insights, Destination Fabulous offers the kind of life-affirming guidance for womanhood I only wish I had known when I was 20. Chioma Nnadi: Vogue.com. Anna Murphy joyfully reframes the gift of growing up and older. Kenya Hunt: A joyous celebration of the pleasures of growing older and an empowering manifesto for changing our attitudes to age. Justine Picardie: Perhaps the most important thing I have learned when it comes to appearance is that looking your best self is more than anything about what is going on inside. The more fully realised you are, the more you find your purpose, the more that will shine out of you, and the better you will look. Anna Murphy: From the Fashion Director of The Times comes a wise, inspiring, and invigorating guide to making the most of life as a grown-up woman, from the practical how to dress your best to the existential how to feel your best. At 50, Anna Murphy feels more visible than at any point in her life to date. Her new book, Destination Fabulous, is the toolkit you need to embrace your age and celebrate the wisdom and inner beauty that comes with it. It's not about impossible goals. It's not about running a marathon unless you want it to be. It's not about denying the ageing.
