Gunning,2005

With its inclusive view of literacy Creating Literacy Instruction for All Students emphasizes methods that have been validated by research and practice while delivering the basics of all major aspects of reading and writing. The Fifth Edition of this best selling book continues to be a comprehensive practical text that provides its readers with step by step guidance for teaching reading and writing. Written by distinguished author Tom Gunning, this text features sample lessons for virtually every major literacy skill strategy and offers numerous reinforcement suggestions and generous listings of materials. With its careful balance between the theory and the practice, readers are always given the theories behind the methods, encouraging them to choose, adapt, and construct their own approaches as they create a balanced program of literacy instruction. Special emphasis has been given to adapting instruction for English language learners, struggling readers and writers, and special needs students throughout the book. Unlike comparable texts, the new edition stresses effective steps for closing the gap between achieving and struggling readers as mandated by the No Child Left Behind legislation and Reading First. Strategies for Teaching Learners with Special Needs Edward A. Polloway, James R. Patton, 1993 Revised to incorporate important new information about No Child Left Behind and the 2004 re-authorization of IDEA, this classic work in the field of teaching methodology for students with special needs continues to be the most comprehensive textbook available for students with mild high incidence disabilities, i.e., learning disabilities, mild retardation, intellectual disabilities, emotional and behavioral disorders, and students experiencing learning problems in the general education classroom. The focus of the book is on effective instructional strategies for students being served in diverse educational settings with a primary emphasis on those being taught in inclusive educational environments. In Part I, the text provides basic information on curriculum development and instruction while in Part II, an in-depth discussion of key curricular areas is provided. For educators teaching learning disabled students. Current Index to Journals in Education, 2002. The Complete Learning Disabilities Directory Grey House Publishing, 2007-09. Books Out Loud, 2007. Spelling Diane Montgomery, 1997 Based on research undertaken by trainee teachers, this book looks at all areas of spelling difficulties. It is essential reading for all teachers and those concerned with literacy. Advanced Educational Psychology for Educators, Researchers, and Policymakers Michael Pressley, Christine McCormick, 1995 This cutting edge text summarizes and explains the research that all educators, researchers, and policymakers need to know. Improving Reading Jerry L. Johns, 2005. Complete Learning Disabilities Directory 2010 Laura Mars-Proietti, Richard Gottlieb, 2009 This is the most comprehensive directory of Programs, Services, Curriculum, Materials, Professional Meetings, Resources, Camps, Newsletters, and Support Groups for teachers, students, and families concerned with learning disabilities. This edition is distinguished by its recognition by the National Center for Learning Disabilities as well as a Glossary of Terms. This information packed directory includes information about Associations, Organizations, Schools, Colleges, Testing Materials, Government Agencies, Legal Resources, and much more. For quick, easy access to information, this directory contains three indexes: Entry Name Index, Subject Index, and
