Unwired Gaia Bernstein, 2023-03-28 Our society has a technology problem Many want to disconnect from screens but can't help themselves These days we spend more time online than ever Some turn to self help measures to limit their usage yet repeatedly fail while parents feel particularly powerless to help their children Unwired Gaining Control over Addictive Technologies shows us a way out Rather than blaming users the book shatters the illusion that we autonomously choose how to spend our time online It shifts the moral responsibility and accountability for solutions to corporations Drawing lessons from the tobacco and food industries the book demonstrates why government regulation is necessary to curb technology addiction It describes a grassroots movement already in action across courts and legislative halls Groundbreaking and urgent Unwired provides a blueprint to develop this movement for change to one that will allow us to finally gain control      The Routledge Handbook of Motherhood on Screen Susan Liddy, Deirdre Flynn, 2025-04-25 The Routledge Handbook of Motherhood on Screen offers a comprehensive global analysis of the representation of Mothers and Motherhood in contemporary screen industries and online spaces Over five distinct sections this handbook examines how the complexities and realities of contemporary motherhood are translated to the screen Offering a full scholarly overview of the field this handbook provides a ground breaking and important contribution to our understanding of motherhood on screen The geographical and genre reach of the handbook presents new ways of theorising and reframing current scholarly debate and gives a wide ranging and comprehensive contribution to knowledge of on screen representations An international team of established scholars and emerging voices provide analysis of representations from around the world spanning a breadth of genres The chapters situate transnational screen representations of motherhood in the 21st Century and assess the implications of contemporary representation of motherhood Thoroughly challenging and expanding understandings of motherhood and mothers this handbook will be an essential multi faceted publication for researchers and students of film TV animation motherhood gender studies feminism ageing studies anthropology and sociology      Beyond Self-Care Potato Chips Amber Wardell, 2024-10-29 Toxic self care culture tells women that bubble baths and Botox are the route to happiness and fulfillment Though these types of self care can fill us up in the moment they cannot provide long lasting nourishment They are empty calories the potato chips of self care And from them we can never get full In the same way we will not feel fulfilled by reaching for the empty calorie self care trends that toxic materialistic self care culture sells us To fill our exhausted bodies and weary minds to live fully and authentically we need the kind of self care that nourishes Beyond Self Care Potato Chips is a call to action for women everywhere to reach instead for nourishing self care Though this may sound easy in theory many women struggle to carry it out We struggle because we have forgotten how to reach Our training as little girls taught us that it is polite to be grateful for what we get To say thank you but I'm full when offered second helpings To accept the potato chips we are given because there are people on this planet who have none so how dare we ask for more Through the narrative voice of a psychologist who is also an exhausted millennial mom trying to keep it all together Beyond Self Care Potato Chips explores courageous self care in the areas of marriage motherhood family
