The Dark Fantastic Ebony Elizabeth Thomas, 2020-09-22 Winner 2022 Children's Literature Association Book Award given by the Children's Literature Association Winner 2020 World Fantasy Awards Winner 2020 British Fantasy Awards Nonfiction Finalist Creative Nonfiction IGNYTE Award given by FIYACON for BIPOC in Speculative Fiction Reveals the diversity crisis in children's and young adult media as not only a lack of representation but a lack of imagination Stories provide portals into other worlds both real and imagined The promise of escape draws people from all backgrounds to speculative fiction but when people of color seek passageways into the fantastic the doors are often barred This problem lies not only with children's publishing but also with the television and film executives tasked with adapting these stories into a visual world When characters of color do appear they are often marginalized or subjected to violence reinforcing for audiences that not all lives matter The Dark Fantastic is an engaging and provocative exploration of race in popular youth and young adult speculative fiction Grounded in her experiences as YA novelist fanfiction writer and scholar of education Thomas considers four black girl protagonists from some of the most popular stories of the early 21st century Bonnie Bennett from the CW's The Vampire Diaries Rue from Suzanne Collins's The Hunger Games Gwen from the BBC's Merlin and Angelina Johnson from J K Rowling's Harry Potter Analyzing their narratives and audience reactions to them reveals how these characters mirror the violence against black and brown people in our own world In response Thomas uncovers and builds upon a tradition of fantasy and radical imagination in Black feminism and Afrofuturism to reveal new possibilities Through fanfiction and other modes of counter storytelling young people of color have reinvisioned fantastic worlds that reflect their own experiences their own lives As Thomas powerfully asserts we dark girls deserve more because we are more

Intimacy and Identity in the Postmodern Novel Emilia Dimitrijevic, 2008 This book focuses on the themes of intimacy and identity in the contemporary novel and in particular in the novels of A S Byatt Angela Carter and Jeanette Winterson Not only do the specificity of the contemporary social context and a growing awareness of the relational nature of the concepts of intimacy and identity set these novels apart from earlier writing that take these issues more for granted Their very concern with the themes of intimacy and identity also sets them apart from much postmodernist or mannerist writing that chooses to cold shoulder these arguments The study draws on work by contemporary social theorists and philosophers and aims to examine issues which although central to the writing of these authors have been neglected or treated superficially in literary criticism Finally it looks into the ways in which the new approaches to the question of intimacy and identity relate and contribute to contemporary debates on the postmodern novel     Death's Kiss Complete Series Box Set C.J. Pinard, 2018-11-16 What would you do if you had a mere 7 days to save your mortal life From USA Today bestselling author C J Pinard comes the entire Death's Kiss Series now available all in one place Soul Rebel Soul Redemption Soul Release Kovah Soul Seeker     Combining Aesthetic and Psychological Approaches to TV Series Addiction Sébastien Lefait, Anne-Marie

Paquet-Deyris,2018-07-26 This book establishes and then analyses the interrelation between series and dependence by focusing on two aspects of their connection the overconsumption of TV series and the production devices that lead to it Due to its two sided nature the volume brings together specialists from different backgrounds On the one hand it involves people working with addiction such as psychiatrists psychologists and social workers whose analytical tools and statistics are extremely useful in assessing the prevalence of TV series addiction as well as its consequences in order to make sense of its mechanics For similar reasons the authors also include professionals working with children and teenagers since youths under 18 are largely affected by addictive tendencies On the other hand other contributions here are authored by TV series specialists producers and scriptwriters as well as academics in the fields of film and TV series studies cultural studies and narratology Their specific perspectives on the topic help better understand what it is about the construction or reception of TV series that aims to create maintain amplify or on the contrary curb their ingrained addictive effects

Film Firsts Ethan Alter,2014-02-17 This forward looking exploration of contemporary American film across the last 40 years identifies and examines the specific movies that changed the film industry and shaped its present and future Since the mid 1970s American cinema has gone through enormous changes such as the birth of the modern summer blockbuster the rise of the independent film industry ongoing technological advancements in special effects and the ever evolving models for film distribution Written by a professional film critic and film buff this book tells the story of contemporary American cinema in a unique and engaging way by examining 25 key movies that demonstrated a significant creative technological or business innovation that impacted the industry at large Each chapter in this chronological survey of contemporary film is divided into two sections The Film which offers a critical overview of the film in question and The First which describes the specific innovation achieved by that film and places that achievement in the larger historical context Two additional appendices in each chapter explore other significant aspects of both the film and its groundbreaking nature The broad coverage ranging from action movies to horror films to science fiction favorites ensures the work's appeal to all film fans
