Culture is not an industry Justin O'Connor, 2024-02-27 Culture is at the heart to what it means to be human But twenty five years ago the British government rebranded art and culture as creative industries valued for their economic contribution and set out to launch the UK as the creative workshop of a globalised world Where does that leave art and culture now Facing exhausted workers and a lack of funding and vision culture finds itself in the grip of accountancy firms creativity gurus and Ted Talkers At a time of sweeping geo political turmoil culture has been de politicised its radical energies reduced to factors of industrial production This book is about what happens when an essential part of our democratic citizenship fundamental to our human rights is reduced to an industry Culture is not an industry argues that art and culture need to renew their social contract and re align with the radical agenda for a more equitable future Bold and uncompromising the book offers a powerful vision for change
