Cli Fi Novel International Bestseller:

Cli-Fi and Class Debra J. Rosenthal, Jason de Lara Molesky, 2023-10-09 Since its emergence in the late twentieth century climate fiction or cli fi has concerned itself as much with economic injustice and popular revolt as with rising seas and soaring temperatures Indeed with its insistent focus on redressing social disparities cli fi might reasonably be classified as a form of protest literature As environmental crises escalate and inequality intensifies literary writers and scholars alike have increasingly scrutinized the dual exploitations of the earth's ecosystems and the socioeconomically disadvantaged Cli Fi and Class focuses on the representation of class dynamics in climate change narratives With fifteen essays on the intersection of the economic and the ecological addressing works ranging from the novels of Joseph Conrad Cormac McCarthy and Octavia Butler to the film Black Panther and the Broadway musical Hadestown this collection unpacks the complex ways economic exploitation impacts planetary well being and the ways climatic change shapes those inequities in turn

Reimagining Science Fiction Gary Westfahl, 2025-10-31 In the first decades of the twenty first century science fiction literature has been transformed in many ways as the genre has reacted to the dominating influence of films television and video games the growing popularity of fantasy the rise of young adult science fiction and graphic novels the impact of the internet and social media and the increasing diversity of the authors characters and often non Western settings The essays making up this volume address these and other changes in two ways Some consider new critical approaches to science fiction in response to changing circumstances including analyses of how evolutionary psychology explains today's science fiction the emerging subgenre of cli fi exploring the effects of climate change the use of science fiction in different areas of the college curriculum and a statistical method for identifying works of science fiction Others examine significant new authors such as Nalo Hopkinson Charles Stross Paolo Bacigalupi Suzanne Collins Mira Grant John Sandford and David Mura Contributors include science fiction author Howard V Hendrix and experts in the fields of Chinese studies gender studies literature philosophy and religion

Storytelling to Accelerate Climate Solutions Emily Coren, Hua Wang, 2024-05-27 The climate is changing faster than our cultural practices are adapting to it This Open Access volume co edited by Emily Coren a science communicator and Hua Wang a communication scientist presents a survey of the latest in agency focused climate storytelling Together practitioners and scholars across different fields shared their knowledge experience and insight about how stories can be designed and told to engage enable and empower individuals and communities in climate communication and action You will learn a wide range of narrative strategies and exemplary applications of climate storytelling in terms of professional practices e g education literature journalism popular media genres and formats e g drama comedy fiction media platforms e g television radio mobile and communication modalities e g text visual audio multisensory Entertainment education has been proven over decades to be an effective tool for social and behavior change in the public health sphere and has not yet been applied at scale to the massive ongoing climate related disasters that we need to solve now fast There is an urgent need to rapidly apply and adapt public engagement tools for climate communication to speed up our response times for climate change mitigation and adaptation This book takes a snapshot of where climate storytelling is currently at describes where it fits within a climate communication landscape and supports the next steps of its development It facilitates the of creation climate storytelling efficiently by sharing and amplifying what is working well and building collaborations between practitioners and researchers This is an open access book     The Routledge Companion to Literatures and Crisis Silvia Pellicer-Ortín, Julia Kuznetski, Chiara Battisti, 2024-10-22 The Routledge Companion to Literatures and Crisis provides deep insight into a complex and multi layered phenomenon The third decade of the twenty first century is being marked by a polycrisis caused by various world crises such as the COVID 19 pandemic armed conflicts and climate change leading to economic geopolitical environmental health and security crises Featuring 42 chapters the collection examines crises through literary texts in relation to the environment finance migration and diaspora war human rights values and identity health politics terrorism and technology It illuminates the many faces of the current permacrisis as well as the multifarious crises of the past and their representation in literatures across ages and cultures from the Viking wars Black Death in mediaeval Europe technology in ancient China and the crisis of power in Elizabethan England to imperial biopower in nineteenth century India the genocides in the twentieth century upsurge of domestic violence during the Covid lockdown in Spain and the development of AI The Companion connects diverse cultures disciplines and academic traditions to show how and why literature media and art can voice all types of crises across times It will be a key resource for students and researchers in a broad range of areas including literature film studies narrative studies cultural studies international politics and ecocriticism Chapters Chapter 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license     Atmosfears: The Uncanny Climate of Contemporary Ecofiction Natalie Dederichs, 2023-05-09 We live in a critical moment in history often called the Anthropocene that is defined by unprecedented scales of uncertainty Natalie Dederichs draws on insights from the new materialisms about the entangled nature of planetary existence and combines them with approaches to aesthetics from fields as diverse as reader response criticism phenomenology Gothic and media studies She introduces a poetics of atmospheric relation ality as a necessary component of any ecological engagement with fiction that fully embraces literary encounters with the inaccessible and elusive as expressed in uncanny atmospheric reading experiences     Storying the Ecocatastrophe Helena Duffy, Katarina Leppänen, 2024-05-31 How do writers and artists represent the climate catastrophe so that their works stir audiences to political action or at least raise their environmental awareness without however appearing didactic Storying the Ecocatastrophe attempts to answer this question while interrogating the potential of narrative to become a viable political force The collection of essays achieves this by examining the representational strategies and ideological goals of contemporary cultural productions about climate change These productions have been created across different genres such as the traditional novel dance performance solarpunk economic report collage and space opera as well as across different languages and cultures The volume s twelve chapters demonstrate that rising temperatures erratic weather extinction of species depletion of resources and coastal erosion and flooding are an effect of our abusive relationship with nature They also show that our use of nuclear power extraction of natural resources and extensive farming including heavy reliance on pesticides intersect with intrahuman violence as fleshed out by heteropatriarchy racism neo colonialism and capitalism They finally argue that human activity has indirectly contributed to other contemporary crises namely the migrant crisis and the spread of contagious diseases such as Covid 19 Chapter 8 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
