The New-Born Cuba (Classic Reprint) Franklin Matthews,2018-01-14 Excerpt from The New Born Cuba The old saying that to start right is half the battle never had a better opportunity for exemplification than in the first steps of the reconstruction of Cuba by the United States The world never saw a similar situation An attempt has been made in these pages to tell what certain of the problems involved were and how they were met Most of the chapters of this book ap peared in a series of articles printed in harper s weekly early in 1899 but it has seemed best to supplement them with others giving a fuller account of what took place in Cuba in the first sixty days of American occupation and control when the twig was bent for future growth Whether the grown tree shall bear the fruit of national independence or of colonial dependence or of complete political assimilation depends largely upon the development and conditions of the future The twig certainly was trained to stand erect and to grow straight and true by the American army officials and others so as to produce national independence What some of the agencies were that were used to that end and who some of the leading men were that carried out with absolute fidelity and most faithful zeal the orders issued in accordance About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Island of Cuba (Classic Reprint) Alexander Von Humboldt, 2016-11-12 Excerpt from The Island of Cuba That portion of Baron Humboldt's Personal Narrative of his travels with Mons Bonpland in the equinoctial regions of America which relates to the Island of Cuba has been published as a separate work both in the French and Spanish languages but I believe no complete version has ever been presented in English The following translation is from an excellent rendering of the original work into Spanish which modestly gives only the initials of the translator D J B De V Y M I have been stimulated to undertake this labor by the oft repeated request that I would state which is the best book on Cuba and by the fact that a long continued residence in the island and a study of its condition and resources have convinced me that Baron Humboldt's work is the best that has been written on the subject In order to bring the information in this volume as nearly as possible down to the present time I have added notes which are placed in brackets in the body of the text or without signature at the foot of the page as seemed most conducive to a clear exposition of the present condition of Cuba The notes of Baron Humboldt have the signature H Affixed in the following pages About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
