Children's Software & New Media Revue ,2001 CSR ,2001 Teaching Advanced Skills to At-Risk Students Barbara Means,Carol Chelemer,Michael S. Knapp,1991-11 Sponsored by SRI International This book presents six instructional models that have proven successful in teaching such advanced skills as reading comprehension written composition and mathematical reasoning to students who generally would be expected to fare poorly in a typical school program

Teaching Advanced Skills to Educationally Disadvantaged Students Barbara Means,Michael Sturgis Knapp,1991 Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing,Bowker,1999-12 Creating Literacy Instruction for All Students Thomas G. Gunning,2005

With its inclusive view of literacy Creating Literacy Instruction for All Students emphasizes methods that have been validated by research and practice while delivering the basics of all major aspects of reading and writing. The Fifth Edition of this best selling book continues to be a comprehensive practical text that provides its readers with step by step guidance for teaching reading and writing. Written by distinguished author Tom Gunning, this text features sample lessons for virtually every major literacy skill strategy and offers numerous reinforcement suggestions and generous listings of materials. With its careful balance between the theory and the practice, readers are always given the theories behind the methods, encouraging them to choose, adapt, and construct their own approaches as they create a balanced program of literacy instruction. Special emphasis has been given to adapting instruction for English language learners, struggling readers and writers, and special needs students throughout the book. Unlike comparable texts, the new edition stresses effective steps for closing the gap between achieving and struggling readers as mandated by the No Child Left Behind legislation and Reading First.

Strategies for Teaching Learners with Special Needs

Edward A. Polloway, James R. Patton, 1993 Revised to incorporate important new information about No Child Left Behind and the 2004 re-authorization of IDEA, this classic work in the field of teaching methodology for students with special needs continues to be the most comprehensive textbook available for students with mild high incidence disabilities, i.e., learning disabilities, mild retardation, intellectual disabilities, emotional and behavioral disorders, and students experiencing learning problems in the general education classroom. The focus of the book is on effective instructional strategies for students being served in diverse educational settings with a primary emphasis on those being taught in inclusive educational environments. In Part I, the text provides basic information on curriculum development and instruction while in Part II, an in-depth discussion of key curricular areas is provided. For educators teaching learning disabled students.
