Comparative Federalism A Systematic Inquiry Second Edition:

Comparative Federalism Thomas O. Hueglin, Alan Fenna, 2015-01-01 Comparative Federalism A Systematic Inquiry Second Edition is a uniquely comprehensive analytic and genuinely comparative introduction to the principles and practices as well as the institutional compromises of federalism. Hueglin and Fenna draw from their diverse research on federal systems to focus on four main models: America, Canada, Germany, and the European Union, but also range widely over other cases. At the heart of the book is careful analysis of the relationship between constitutional design and amendment, fiscal relations, institutional structures, intergovernmental relations, and judicial review. Such analysis serves the dual role of helping the reader understand federalism and providing a comparative framework from which to assess the record of federal systems. The second edition has been extensively revised and updated, taking into account new developments in federal systems and incorporating insights from the growing body of literature in the field. It includes two new chapters: Fiscal Federalism and The Limits of Federalism.

Comparative Federalism Thomas O. Hueglin, Alan Fenna, 2006-01-01 This is a thoughtful, well-organized review of a subject of ever-increasing importance: the resurgence of the federal idea. The Honourable Bob Rae, 21st Premier of Ontario.

European Union Governance and Policy-Making, Second Edition Amy Verdun, Achim Hurrelmann, Emmanuel Brunet-Jailly, 2023-06-26 European Union Governance and Policy Making introduces the politics of the European Union (EU) to a student audience. The book is explicitly written for students enrolled in universities in Canada or other non-EU countries and builds on their academic background. Chapters cover the political and legal system of the EU, theories of European integration, core EU policies such as the Single Market, its single currency, migration policy, EU enlargement, as well as pressing issues facing the further development of European integration. This second edition has been comprehensively revised and updated to include a discussion of Brexit, the European Green Deal, COVID-19, and the Russian invasion of Ukraine. Written by leading Canadian scholars in the field of European integration as well as international experts with teaching experience in Canadian universities, this textbook leverages the comparison to Canada and its federal system to help students understand what is unique about the European Union.

The SAGE Handbook of Research Methods in Political Science and International Relations Luigi Curini, Robert Franzese, 2020-04-09 The SAGE Handbook of Research Methods in Political Science and International Relations offers a comprehensive overview of research processes in social science from the ideation and design of research projects through the construction of theoretical arguments to conceptualization, measurement, data collection, and quantitative, qualitative, empirical analysis, exposited through 65 major new contributions from leading international methodologists. Each chapter surveys, builds upon, and extends the modern state of the art in its area. Following through its six part organization, undergraduate and graduate students, researchers, and practicing academics will be guided through the design, methods, and analysis of issues in Political Science and International Relations. Part One: Formulating Good Research Questions; Designing Good Research Projects; Part Two: Methods of

Theoretical Argumentation Part Three Conceptualization Measurement Part Four Large Scale Data Collection Representation Methods Part Five Quantitative Empirical Methods Part Six Qualitative Mixed Methods Handbook on Decentralization, Devolution and the State Lago, Ignacio,2021-10-19 Taking a multidisciplinary approach to the dynamics of political and economic decentralization in contemporary regimes this comprehensive Handbook offers a critical examination of how the decentralization of governance affects citizen well being

Recentralization Around the World

Juan C. Olmeda,Alejandra Armesto,2025-11-01 The 1990s witnessed a surge in decentralization as national governments around the world sought to transfer responsibilities and prerogatives to regional and local authorities The last two decades have seen a reversal of this trend as national authorities have attempted to regain control over these decentralized tasks in a process known as recentralization This book is one of the first studies to examine the process of recentralization in a global context Drawing on country case studies from around the world including both developed and developing countries and democratic and authoritarian regimes the book assesses where and why recentralization has taken place and what has contributed to its successes and failures It also examines recentralization in key policy areas including education policy health policy and environmental policy The overall aim is to provide readers with a conceptual and theoretical understanding of recentralization and its consequences as well as a comparative global overview of common trends and key distinctions at national and regional level The book will appeal to all those interested in public administration comparative politics political science and sociology

A Theory of African Constitutionalism Berihun Adugna Gebeye,2021 Utilizing detailed case studies from Nigeria Ethiopia and South Africa this title traces African constitutionalism from precolonial times to the present The volume offers a new framework for understanding African constitutionalism and a range of practical proposals for its future development

City, State Ran Hirschl,2020-06-12 More than half of the world s population lives in cities by 2050 it will be more than three quarters Projections suggest that megacities of 50 million or even 100 million inhabitants will emerge by the end of the century mostly in the Global South This shift marks a major and unprecedented transformation of the organization of society both spatially and geopolitically Our constitutional institutions and imagination however have failed to keep pace with this new reality Cities have remained virtually absent from constitutional law and constitutional thought not to mention from comparative constitutional studies more generally As the world is urbanizing at an extraordinary rate this book argues new thinking about constitutionalism and urbanization is desperately needed In six chapters the book considers the reasons for the constitutional blind spot concerning the metropolis probes the constitutional relationship between states and mega cities worldwide examines patterns of constitutional change and stalemate in city status and aims to carve a new place for the city in constitutional thought constitutional law and constitutional practice

The Politicisation of the European Commission's Presidency

Matilde Ceron,Thomas Christiansen,Dionyssis G. Dimitrakopoulos,2024-04-04 This book is the first systematic effort to investigate the ramifications of the introduction of the Spitzenkandidaten process for the appointment of the President of the European Commission It does so by examining the first two applications of the Spitzenkandidaten process from an historical legal and political perspective Although this process has spurred vibrant debate regarding its impact on EU elections and the EU political system it has yet to be comprehensively analysed by scholars Addressing this important gap the book provides a conceptual framework for analysing the impact of the Spitzenkandidaten process takes stock of its internal inter institutional and constitutional repercussions and assesses its future prospects Interdisciplinary in nature the book touches on several important themes including European elections EU policy making leadership legitimacy supranationalism and European integration Published to coincide with the 2024 European Parliament election it will appeal to scholars and students of the politics of European integration public administration governance European politics and EU constitutional law
