After the first few days of practice, the students were asked to write a short story. The first few stories were not very good, but as the students became more comfortable with the new language, their writing improved. The students were encouraged to use their imagination and creativity in their writing. The teacher provided feedback and guidance to help the students improve their writing skills. The students were also given opportunities to read and analyze the work of their peers, which helped them to learn from each other and improve their own writing.

Please note that we are using the same software as the previous year, which has been developed specifically for the competition. It is important that you familiarise yourself with the software prior to the competition, as this will help you to compete effectively.

Consequently, most of the upper ring had disappeared, or eaten, at the upper edge. The same was true of the ring at the lower edge.

All communications were made with the 10000 "QSL" card in the upper side of the radio, with the antenna system, which makes the radio more efficient than any of the present. The high voltage

The most important element was and still is the ability to communicate with every segment of the public.

Observations: positive findings were predominantly the presence of small, thin, yellowish, lumpy areas of tissue.
