Forms and functions in J.M. Coetzee's "Foe" Christina Binter,2022-07-13 Seminar paper from the year 2017 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2 language English abstract The main aim of this seminar paper is to introduce the novel Foe by J M Coetzee and to give an overview about the forms and functions of it Therefore a closer look at metafiction historiographic metafiction and meta narrative techniques is necessary due to the fact that the novel is meta narrative Since the story of the island narrated by the protagonist Susan Barton is important for an analysis it is not enough just to focus on that Susan's island story serves as a kind of framework because the novel is about the art of writing and story telling Firstly the author J M Coetzee his biography and his many works will be presented Secondly the term metafiction its definition and different forms will be discussed After that there will be a short overview of the novel including plot characters and narrative techniques which are important to understand the meaning of the book This will be followed by the chapter metafiction in which some forms of metafiction as well as some elements of the story supported by some examples will be presented The final section will give an overall picture of Coetzee's story Foe Literary Fiction Geir Farner,2014-01-30 Insofar as literary theory has addressed the issue of literature as a means of communication and the function of literary fiction opinions have been sharply divided indicating that the elementary foundations of literary theory and criticism still need clarifying Many of the classical problems that literary theory has been grappling with from Aristotle to our time are still waiting for a satisfactory solution Based on a new cognitive model of literature as communication Farner systematically explains how literary fiction works providing new solutions to a wide range of literary issues like intention function evaluation delimitation of the literary work as such fictionality suspense and the roles of author and narrator along with such narratological problems as voice point of view and duration Covering a wide range of literary issues central to literary theory offering new theories while also summarising the field as it stands Literary Fiction will be a valuable guide and resource for students and scholars of the theory of literature The Living Church ,1904 African American Literature Alma Dawson Ph.D.,Connie Van Fleet,2004-12-30 Will guide readers to works central to the compelling African American experience that match specific reading interests A brief history of the evolution of African American literature collection development guidelines and readers advisory tips complete this resource The Short-story Craftsman Hattie Horner Louthan,1930
