Keywords in Remix Studies Eduardo Navas,Owen Gallagher,xtime burrough,2017-11-27 Keywords in Remix Studies consists of twenty four chapters authored by researchers who share interests in remix studies and remix culture throughout the arts and humanities The essays reflect on the critical historical and theoretical lineage of remix to the technological production that makes contemporary forms of communication and creativity possible Remix enjoys international attention as it continues to become a paradigm of reference across many disciplines due in part to its interdisciplinary nature as an unexpectedly fragmented approach and method useful in various fields to expand specific research interests The focus on a specific keyword for each essay enables contributors to expose culture and society's inconclusive relation with the creative process and questions assumptions about authorship plagiarism and originality

Keywords in Remix Studies is a resource for scholars including researchers practitioners lecturers and students interested in some or all aspects of remix studies It can be a reference manual and introductory resource as well as a teaching tool across the humanities and social sciences

Cultural Citizenship and Popular Culture Joke Hermes, 2023-09-27 Written in an accessible and engaging style this book uses a series of case studies to show how popular media are important to us as a source of pleasure and entertainment but also in communicating about the world with others Social media platforms have changed how we talk about what we like and dislike in our popular media use Cultural citizenship shows how these discussions speak to belonging to what we feel our rights and responsibilities are in today's polarized world Cultural Citizenship and Popular Culture is based on audience led research and does not privilege textual analysis as a starting point for taking popular media use as measure. Instead it offers research tools to listen to others. This book offers scholars and students of media and creative industries a means to understand their professional position as one in which they engage with rather than assume to know what users of popular cultural texts and products think and feel.

The Hidden Psychology of Social Networks: How Brands Create Authentic Engagement by Understanding What Motivates Us Joe Federer, 2020-09-15 From the former Head of Brand Strategy at Reddit comes a proven and thought provoking approach to the digital economy and how brands can create authentic engagement that is rooted in the fundamental motivations behind human psychology. Leading marketing practitioner and thought leader Joe Federer draws on evolutionary biology, anthropology, neuroanatomy and psychology as well as more than a decade of hands on experience to explain why people act so differently in various online spaces and what they are seeking from participating in each one. With a framework based on Freud's Id, Ego and Superego model of the human psyche, he demonstrates how the internet is a digital reflection of the collective human psyche and how different social networks correspond to different mindsets: platforms like Reddit to the unfiltered Id, Facebook and Twitter to the managed Ego and Instagram to the ideal Superego. In the same way you behave differently when you're home alone, out with friends, communicating with family or interacting with coworkers, people act and express themselves differently in these various online spaces. Context matters. Understanding this will enable you to develop and execute effective engagement strategies to reach your target audiences on each social network. Learn how to create content that drives sharing and word of mouth, how brands can fit natively into different types of social channels, how to balance branded social presences across different networks, why authenticity will only grow in importance to consumers. Fascinating and deeply compelling, The Hidden Psychology of Social Networks will equip you to make vastly more efficient use of your media buys, establish more thoughtful strategies, develop better creative and in the end deliver more effective marketing that provides value.
