A simple system where all walls, foundations, and structures are built with a single block, and there is no way to change the wall height. This system is limited to simple structures like walls, fences, and small buildings, but it is easy to learn and use. It is also very efficient, as it requires minimal materials and energy.

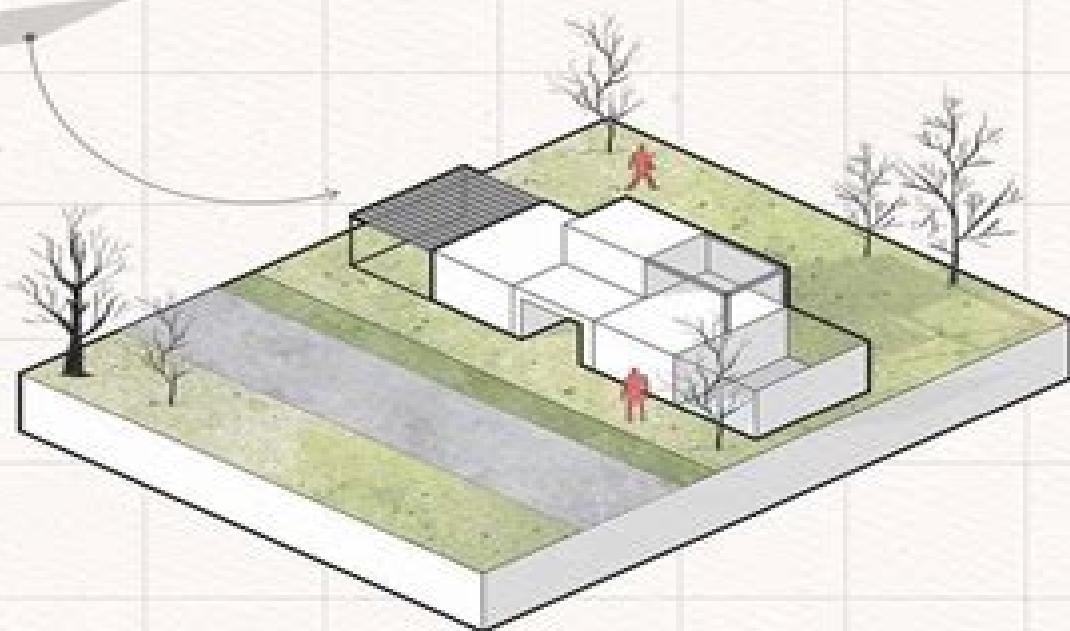

02

A more complex system where walls, foundations, and structures are built with different blocks. This system allows for more complex structures like stairs, arches, and small buildings, but it is more difficult to learn and use. It also requires more materials and energy.
