Condom nation : the U.S. government's sex education campaign from World War I to the Internet Alexandra M. Lord, 2009 This history of the U S Public Health Service s efforts to educate Americans about sex makes clear why federally funded sex education has been haphazard ad hoc and often ineffectual Since launching its first sex ed program during World War I the Public Health Service has dominated federal sex education efforts Alexandra M Lord draws on medical research news reports the expansive records of the Public Health Service and interviews with former surgeons general to examine these efforts from early initiatives through the administration of George W Bush Giving equal voice to many groups in America middle class working class black white urban rural Christian and non Christian scientist and theologian Lord explores how federal officials struggled to create sex education programs that balanced cultural and public health concerns She details how the Public Health Service left an indelible mark on federally and privately funded sex education programs through partnerships and initiatives with community organizations public schools foundations corporations and religious groups In the process Lord explains how tensions among these organizations and local state and federal officials often exacerbated existing controversies about sexual behavior She also discusses why the Public Health Service s promotional tactics sometimes inadvertently fueled public fears about the federal government s goals in promoting or not promoting sex education This thoroughly documented and compelling history of the U S Public Health Service s involvement in sex education provides new insights into one of the most contested subjects in America Condom Nation Richard A. Panzer, 1997 Condom Nation uncovers the contradictions contained in many AIDS Prevention programs used in U S schools and asks Is Sex Ed based on sound science or on blind assumptions Condom Nation describes a world of latex solutions in which fact has been replaced by slogans and careful evaluation by unquestioned dogma A disturbing thoughtful book every parent should read A fascinating book which catalogs the failures of sex education in the schools Suzanne Fields syndicated columnist Examines the failure of the present politically correct attitudes toward sexual activity uses concepts from evolutionary psychology to buttress its moral stand clear easy to understand Choice American Library Association

brings hope and change to nearly all corners of the world      MTV and Teen Pregnancy Letizia Guglielmo,2013-05-30 In 2009 16 and Pregnant premiered on MTV closely followed by the spinoffs Teen Mom and Teen Mom 2 Because of their controversial portrayals of teenage mothers the shows have received ongoing media attention While some argue that the programs could play a factor in reducing the number of teen pregnancies others claim the shows exploit young women and glamorize their situations Among these debates there have been surprisingly few in depth discourses that discuss the roles such shows have on teenage audiences In MTV and Teen Pregnancy Critical Essays on 16 and Pregnant and Teen Mom contributors from a variety of backgrounds and expertise offer potent essays about these programs Divided into four parts the book tackles the controversial representations of teen pregnancy from various disciplines Part I explores gendered social norms and the shows roles as either educational resources or idealized depictions of teenage motherhood Part II prompts readers to consider the intersections of race class gender and the social and cultural power structures often glossed over in these programs Part III focuses on teenage fathers the portrayal of masculinity and good vs bad parents Part IV draws from TV's representations of reality to discuss the impact of these shows on the viewing audience This section includes a narrative from a teen mother who argues that the shows do not accurately reflect the life she leads As the debates about 16 and Pregnant and Teen Mom continue this collection provides a valuable critical discourse to be used both inside and outside the classroom Those engaged in courses on gender and women's studies as well as media studies social work and family and childhood development will find MTV and Teen Pregnancy especially insightful as will those involved in community outreach programs not to mention teens and young mothers themselves      Righteous Rebels Patrick Range McDonald,2016-10-17 In this thought provoking portrait of AIDS Healthcare Foundation the world's largest HIV AIDS medical care provider award winning journalist Patrick Range McDonald reveals the nonprofit's unlikely rise from a feisty grassroots organization during the 1980s AIDS crisis in Los Angeles to its position today as an aggressive global leader in the ongoing fight to control HIV and AIDS This riveting story highlights the motivations behind AHF's life saving efforts its battles against and alliances with governments and various political establishments and its work today to provide free HIV treatment and prevention services to vulnerable lower income people in more than thirty countries With unrestricted insider access McDonald follows AHF for a year as it clashes with the Obama administration the state of Nevada and the World Health Organization He interviews AHF's key players including firebrand president Michael Weinstein and he travels to AHF outposts around the globe from Miami to Uganda Cambodia to Russia Estonia to South Africa Along the way McDonald discovers that AHF is a passionate smart and tenacious people power organization that brings hope and change to nearly all corners of the world Beyond its work as a highly effective global AIDS organization the AHF story also provides a blueprint for every kind of righteous rebel who wants to make the world a better place      From Condoms to Cabbages Thomas D'Agnes,2001      United Nations Consolidated Inter-agency Appeal in Response to the Humanitarian Crisis in Malawi, July 2003-June 2004 ,2004      The Parochial
